Steel Industry, Workers Claim Positions Upheld

Government Report Cites Steady Boost In Profits, Wages

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking steelworkers and the steel industry both claimed today that a new government report bolsters their positions.

Maintaining its hands off policy in the 37 day old steel strike, the government Wednesday released figures showing that steel profits, prices and wages have been going up for years.

Mitchell Issues Report

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell made public the 4,000-word background report on the steel dispute. He said neither side has been doing any intensive bargaining and urged greater efforts until a settlement is reached.

But Mitchell declined to make any recommendations on where there should be some backing down in the deadlocked negotiations—and which side should do the retreating.

"There are no conclusions drawn (from the report)," he said. "The responsibility for a settlement of the strike rests upon management and labor."

Cites Public Interest

However, he made it clear that the public has an interest in the dispute which each week is costing 300 million dollars worth of production and 70 million dollars in wages.

Mitchell told several hundred newsmen at a news conference that the effect of the strike so far has not been serious from a national standpoint.

But a national emergency might result if the strike is not settled by the latter part of September or early Ocober, he said in reply to a question.

Management and union spokesmen lost no time in commenting on Mitchell's report.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the steel industry, said the report shows steel wages have put steelworkers "at the top of the list." Increases in employment costs have exceeded increases in output per man hour, Cooper said, thereby forcing up steel prices. He said the increase of output per man hour in steel was lower than in the national economy as a whole.

Claims Profits Lag

Cooper said the report "shows also that steel profits as a return on investment have consistently lagged behind those in other industries—even before taking ac-

Team of Fliers Poised for Try This Afternoon

Project Aimed at Solving Problem of Returning Space Man

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—From out of the vast Pacific heavens, a small capsule dangling from a parachute was expected to drop slowly toward the ocean today.

And waiting in Hawaii was a team of fliers with a seemingly impossible assignment—to go out and try to catch it before it hit the water.

The capsule went aloft Wednesday, fixed in the nose of the Discoverer VI satellite, which is flashing around the earth once every 95 minutes in an egg-shaped, north-south orbit.

This afternon, 26 hours after the launching, the capsule was to be kicked lose from the 19-foot satellite.

And, for the second time in less than a week, a squadron of Air Force C119 Flying Boxcars was set to take off from Hawaii and try to execute an almost incredible catch. Each plane was equipped with a recovery net—a trapeze-like affair.

The project is aimed at solving the re-entry problem—now to get a man in space and, once he's there, get him back.

Although the odds against success seem overwhelming, the Air Force hoped to have more than the highly remote chance of sighting the capsule during its descent. The capsule was equipped with a radio which was supposed to send signals, to give the recovery team an idea of its whereabouts.

Such a recovery was planned following the successful launching of Discoverer V last week. But the radio in the falling capsule evidently broke down. Nobody got a signal from it. The capsule, presumably tumbled into the sea.

Discoverer VI is expected to remain in orbit at least a month. It comes within 138 miles of earth at its closest approach and goes as far out as 537 miles.

Program Set For 114th Annual Event

Columbiana Fair Will Open Tuesday

The gates will open next Tuesday morning on the 114th annual Columbiana County Fair, the agricultural exhibiting to continue at the Lisbon fairgrounds through the balance of the week.

The granges and other groups have been planning exhibits for months and building and grounds improvements at the grounds have been carried out by the fair board.

Forty additional pony stalls have been built, the 4-H dairy barn improved, new flower display racks built in a new location in the Floral Hall, 300 feet of new chain link fence has been installed along the race track, 100 tons of new clay added to the race track and 100 gallons of paint have been applied on various buildings.

The first day of the fair will be turned over to the Junior Fair program starting at 8 a.m. with the weighing of the 4-H and FFA steers followed by the judging of the Junior Fair Dairy Show. An auto and tractor rodeo will be held in front of the grandstand at 10 a.m.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30, featuring the 4-H band, the presentation of the royal court and crowning of 4-H King and Queen, a float parade and other youth activities.

Wild West Show in Evening

At 7 p.m. there will be a livestock and machinery parade, followed by the Cherokee Ranch Wild West Rodeo at 8:30.

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock the judging of Junior Fair sheep, swine, and poultry will begin. Other events of the morning are the light weight horse pulling contest at the Grandstand, open class sheep, swine and poultry judging and the Junior Fair dairy showmanship contest.

At 1 p.m. the judging of the 4-H and FFA steers will be held in the Coliseum and in front of the grandstand at 1:30 the first race program will be presented, highlighted by the 3 year old trot for a purse of $1,200, the 2:15 pace and the 2:20 pace each for a purse of $500, with mule races between the heats.

At 7 p.m. Wednesday evening the livestock and machinery and Junior Fair parade will be repeated, followed by the steer sale in the Coliseum. At 8:30 the Cherokee Wild West Rodeo will be presented in front of the Grandstand.

Thursday morning the Open Class Cattle Show will begin at 9 in the Coliseum and in front of the Grandstand and the heavyweight horse pulling contest.

The afternoon program in front of the Grandstand will be more horse races; the 2 year old pace for a purse of $1,200 and the 2:22 trot and free-for-all trot, each for a purse of $500.

Hunt for Quake Victims Pressed

300 Survivors Moved Out of Danger Area

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (AP)—A big force of searchers moves back into the still-shaking earthquake area of southwestern Montana today to renew a perilous hunt for more victims.

Landslides are raining rocks and dirt down the mountain slopes.

Searching crews are made up of men from the Civil Defense organization, sheriff's office, U.S. Forest Service and volunteers.

They said they would not attempt to dig into the 50-million-ton landslide below Hebgen Dam until the comparatively slight tremors subside.

Bodies of eight quake victims have been recovered from the devastated mounatins and canyons. Reports from survivors indicate the toll may rise to 12. They told of seeing a car with a man and a woman and a crippled boy buried by an avalanche.

A woman reported by Sheriff Donald Skerritt to be missing and presumed drowned was found alive Wednesday night. Grace Miller, about 60, whose lakeside home was washed away in a wave of water propelled by a landslide, had walked 15 miles to a ranch.

Coroner Charles E. Raper says he believes the body of Mrs. Thomas Stowe of Sandy, Utah, is in the Madison River. He reported the family car and her belongings have been found in the stream. Her husband was killed.

Officials have said they believe more bodies may be found by digging into the landslides and probing Hebgen Lake and the Madison River.

Skindivers are planning to go into the lake when the muddy water clears. They will check a report that two persons drowned in a car submerged in dirt and water.

All of the known survivors—about 300—have been moved out of the quake area. Some roads, buckled and twisted by the quake, have been made passable by the use of bulldozers.

Many highways in the western part of Yellowstone National Park were blocked by landslides and the damage there was expected to run into the millions of dollars.

Fire Destroys Junk Yard; Loss Is $3,000

Fire, which broke out shortly after 10 p.m. Wednesday, caused $3,000 damage at Alexander's Scrap Iron & Metal Co. and kept firemen up all night.

Loss in the blaze at 345 W. Wilson St. was not covered by insurance, Chief Clarence Wright was told by the owner, Charles Alexander.

Alexander told the chief he lost $2,000 in scrap paper, valued at about $50 a ton, and about $1,000 in the worth of the buildings which contained the paper.

Following the first call at 10:21 p.m., Chief Wright called in all city firemen, including those on vacation. Leaving a crew to man the station, the remainder fought the blaze using a pumper truck and the auxiliary fire truck.

Firemen were aided by policemen and passersby in fighting the hot blaze.

Heat from the wind-driven flames caused "serious damage" to a block building wall at the Z. R. Taylor Pattern Shop next door at 365 W. Wilson. The firm's officials could give no estimate of the cost of repairing the damage.

Firemen worked at the scene of the fire until about 4:30 this morning. As the water-soaked papers dried this morning, flames sprang up again and the fire department dispatched a crew at 7:35 a.m. to put out the rekindled fire.

Groups Study Area Sewage Proposal

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners met with representatives of Alliance, Mahoning and Stark counties Wednesday in the mayor's office in Alliance to discuss the possibility of constructing a sewage disposal system for northwest Columbiana County — southeast Mahoning County, parts of Stark county and Alliance.

Alliance, which is building a new disposal plant, requested the meeting to ascertain if Columbiana County residents in the Alliance area would be interested in hooking into the Alliance system.

The proposed plan would affect 143 families in Columbiana County and over 500 acres of land. The estimated cost to countians of installing the sewage main near their homes would be $153,800, or over $1,000 a family.

In addition, they would have to pay the costs of pipe to be laid from their homes to the main line and also pay monthly sewage disposal bills, Max Gard, president of the county commissioner, said.

After the county commissioners receive the plans from Alliance they will call a meeting of the families involved to ascertain what they want to do.

The four groups are expected to meet again around Oct. 1 to discuss further developments, Gard said.

Labor Disputes Sweep Ohio

2,500 Idled, 10,500 Threaten Walkouts

By The Associated Press

Ohio, caught up in the midst of the steel strike, is being harrassed by a swarm of other labor-management disputes.

Nearly 2,500 workers, not including the steelworkers, are idled by strikes and another 10,500 threaten walkouts in a variety of industries.

One major strike, however, ended Wednesday and another showed signs of concluding.

The wildcat strike at Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. at Newark came to a halt only 20 minutes before the management's "return to work or be dismissed" deadline.

Nearly 75 per cent of the 2,500 workers walked out Monday when some workers protested increased incentive rate standards.

Paul Welsh, plant manager, told striking Glass Bottle Blower Assn. members that they were violating a "no-strike" agreement in their contract.

Police, requested by management, stood by as the workers voted by secret ballot 333-271 to return to work. A voice vote earlier had favored continuance of the walkout.

Slaby Enrolls At Pittsburgh

Lou Slaby, one of the finest all-around athletes ever to be graduated from Salem High School, has enrolled at the University of Pittsburgh.

The much sought after Salem star gave the nod to Pittsburgh last night. He was in the Steel City attending a baseball game as the guest of Assistant Coach Steve Petro of the Panthers.

Slaby earlier this summer signed a tender with the University of Michigan, agreeing to attend that school if he decided upon a "Big Ten" university.

Pittsburgh Coach John Michelosen referred to Slaby as one of the top prospects to come to that school for several years. "What else can you say when you get a great one like this," Michelosen was quoted as saying.

The 6' 4" 222-pound athlete played fullback last year on a Salem team which was ranked 13th in the state. He was the starting center on his school's state runner-up basketball squad last season and was a state qualifier in track.

He played on two All - American football teams this summer at Baton Rouge, La., and Hershey, Pa. Slaby had received offers from more than 60 colleges and universities. He will report to Pittsburgh Aug. 28.

Water Chief At Leetonia Granted Raise

LEETONIA — A salary increase was approved for Water Department Superintendent Carmen Guido when Village Council met Wednesday night.

The superintendent's salary was raised from $325 to $350 monthly. Council adopted the ordinance as an emergency, making the increase effective Sept. 1.

Clerk M. P. Burick reported receipts of $166 in parking meter revenue and $5,307 in intangible tax. He stated that the village's finances are solvent, for the first time this year.

It was announced that several residents have not submitted necessary information for the downspout survey being conducted by the village. The survey is to determine how many downspouts are connected to the sanitary sewer, instead of the storm sewer.

Patrol Probes Two Traffic Collisions

Two Wednesday afternoon traffic accidents are still under investigation today by State Highway patrolmen from the Lisbon post.

At 2 p.m. yesterday two trucks sideswiped on County Rd. 404, about a half mile south of Wellsville. They were driven by Donald Baolucci, 18, of Ravenna, and Robert D. Kimes of RD 3, Alliance.

At 3:55 p.m. a car driven by M. E. Ullman of Youngstown struck an auto operated by James S. Parker, 36, of RD 2, East Palestine on Rt. 14 near Unity. Patrolmen said Ullman wasn't able to stop in time as Parker made a right turn.

Army-Scientists Feud Threatens To Erupt Again

EDGEWOOD, Md. (AP) — The long-standing feud between the Army and its enlisted scientists threatened to break into the open again today.

Some 400 young enlisted scientific and professional personnel at the Army chemical center here were ordered to fall out at 1 p.m. —in civilian clothes.

The lineup was called to help civilian witnesses identify some of the 60 or so men who celebrated at a beer party here last Thursday night.

Military authorities said they receieved complaints that obscene songs and statements uncomplimentary about the Army emanated from the festivities.

Just 11 months ago a similar party resulted in the court-martial of 11 men, mostly college graduates with degrees in engineering, mathematics, or the natural sciences.

Although the charges were drunk and disorderly conduct, the basic issue at the court-martial was the young scientists' rebellion against age-old military discipline.

Through their civilian lawyer and in press interviews, they complained they received little recognition for their work in Army laboratories and are taken out of the labs for KP duty and routine military training.

Like the earlier party, last Thursday's was held on civilian property near the post.

Retarded Children's Drive Nets $3,500

The $20,000 fund raising drive by the Columbiana County Council for Retarded Children has surpassed $3,500, according to John Billiter, president of the organization.

Donations are still being received through the mail, and Billiter says he expects to have final figures on the drive in a few weeks.

The Salem Garden Club recently made arrangements to obtain the coins from the wishing well at Timberlanes which netted the drive $174.38.

Billiter reports that classes for retarded children will open in East Liverpool and Salem on Sept. 9. The classes will follow time schedules of the public schools. In Salem, classes will be held in the Westminster House.

Bugs Look Like Smoke, Cause Fire Alarm

Firemen were sent on a wild chase at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday when a neighbor of the Maurice W. Sechlers reported smoke coming out of the Sechler home on Goshen Rd.

City firemen, manning the Perry Township fire truck which is kept in the fire station, sped to the scene of the fire. Off-duty firemen, red-eyed after fighting the Alexander junk yard fire for six hours last night, were called in to man the station while the other crew went to the Goshen Rd. fire.

"It was the strangest fire call I ever answered," Chief Clarence W. Wright said. He explained three swarms of bugs were flitting about the outside of the home and that from a distance it appeared that smoke was coming from the house.

20 Persons Die In Charge Of Elephant

KANDY, Ceylon (AP)—A maddened temple elephant charged a crowd of 200,000 at a religious festival Wednesday night. Twenty persons were reported killed in the crush and thousands injured.

Several persons were reported missing. It was feared some had fallen or jumped into Kandy Lake nearby.

The elephant was one of more than 100 participating with dancers and drummers in an annual Buddhist pageant called Perahera.

The animal became infuriated when it stepped on burning coals which had dropped from a flaming torch. It wheeled about and charged, and the crowd ran screaming in panic, seeking shelter in nearby buildings, atop walls and in trees.

Two mahouts clung to the elephant's tail and trunk. They finally stopped it and chained it to a lamppost. But the noise of the surging crowd set the beast off again and it broke loose, smashing shop fronts and trampling obstacles in its path.

Police finally shot and killed the animal on the street.

The Perahera pageant centered on the Temple of the Holy Tooth, one of Buddhism's most sacred spots. The temple huses a tooth supposed to have come from the jaw of Buddha, who founded the religion 25 centuries ago.

Meat Industry Strike Looms

Issues Like Those In Steel Dispute

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—A walkout of nearly 200,000 workers in the giant meat processing industry next month was threatened today on issues similar to those involved in the continuing steel strike.

Union officials said the industry's two major unions, the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and the Packinghouse Workers, have met much the same management wage freeze and other proposals for stockyard workers as were experienced in the steel dispute.

AFL-CIO leaders, meeting in summer session here, expressed concern that the steel strike is a symptoms of what they consider a growing management refusal to give workers a share in expanding industry profits.

The International Union of Electrical Workers, voting a $100,000 donation to the steel strikers, said big business generally has decided to "wreck the hard-won gains of workers" and reverse the system of sharing profits with labor.

The two meat industry unions, after nearly a month of bargaining, have met an almost solid front of packer proposals to freeze present wage rates, averaging about $2.50 an hour.

In a further similarity to the steel bargaining picture, the packing unions say they also face comma freer hand in achieving manpower and other economies.

Like the steel strikers, the meat processing workers seek wage boosts of about 15 cents per hour.

Members of the AFL-CIO Executive Council were expected to approve today a plan to mobilize all AFL-CIO unions behind the steel strike.

The plan includes a rally of all union officers at San Francisco on Sept. 18, as part of the AFL-CIO's bkiennial convention, in behalf of the steel strikers.

2 OHIOANS CASUALTIES

QUONSET POINT, R. I. (AP)—Two Ohioans were among those the Navy listed as casualties in Tuesday's explosion aboard the USS Wasp. They are Lt. (J.B.) William D. Groscup, 25, of Dover, burns on arms and hands; Michael P. Gillespie, 20, of North Bend (Hamilton County), overcome.

WANTED BY FBI. Harry Raymond Pope has been added to the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted Criminals." Pope, 39, is wanted for inter-state flight while awaiting trial in Phoenix, Ariz., for a drug-store robbery. He stands about five feet eight, weighs 150 to 160 and has brown, thinning hair. Pope wears a patch over a blind right eye; his left eye is blue. CAUTION: Pope carries a small arsenal of weapons and is considered extremely dangerous. Any person having information concerning this fugitive should immediately notify the nearest office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the number of which is listed on the first page of local telephone directories.

Russian Leader May Stop Twice In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nikita S. Khrushchev may stop in Washington twice during his visit to the United States, giving him extra opportunity for private talks with Presiden Eisenhower.

The Soviet Premier is slated to arrive in Washington Sept. 15 for the start of a 12-day tour of the country. When he returns from his coast-to-coast travels, Eisenhower may take him to secluded Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains for a final chat.

This would afford Eisenhower a chance to speak to Khrushchev personally after the Soviet leader sees the United States first-hand. A major aim in inviting Khrushchev here has been to dispel what have been called his misconceptions about the freedom and strength of America.

An original estimate that Khrushchev would spend two to three days in Washington has now been lengthened to three or four days. The two men's talks on East-West issues would pick up in pace only after initial ceremonial functions due a visiting government head are out of the way.

Exact details on where Khrushchev will go and when are still being worked out in U.S.-Soviet negotiations. But due to Soviet restrictions, he will get only a limited and hurried view of the country.

The Soviets have set the time limit of 12 days on Khrushchev's visit. They have turned down U.S. sightseeing suggestions while sticking to their own, and the basic decision is up to them.

As a result, Khrushchev now seems likely to cross the country by airplane, with only limited auto travel, taking in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Iowa farmland and perhaps Pittsburgh.

Man Sought for Fraud Safe From Arrest

NEW YORK (AP) — A former American corporation president, wanted in New York in connection with a 14 - million - dollar fraud against stockholders apparently is safe from arrest while in Brazil.

Lowell M. Birrell, 52, one-time president of the Swan-Finch Oil Corp., and board chairman of the Doeskin Products Corp. disappeared in 1957 and was found recently in Rio de Janeiro.

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said Wednesday he thought at first he might get Birrell out of Brazil and back here to face fraud charges despite the lack of an extradition treaty between the U.S. and Brazil covering persons accused of crimes.

Later, Hogan said, the Brazilian government had "a change of mind" and now may decide to consider Birrell a political refugee.

Undesired Remarks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Wifely remarks that husbands get tired of hearing—and overhearing:

"Joe, I gave you the best years of my life, and I ask you—what did it get me?"

"Your pay envelope was 40 cents short. Are you keeping another woman?"

"When I think of all the men I could have married."

"If you expect me to go on spoiling you like your mother did, you've got another think coming."

"Yes, my lord and master, what is it you want now?"

"I don't care if she is your boss's wife. I don't have to bow and scrape before anybody."

"Why is it we practically never go out any more? Are you ashamed of me—or what?"

"It won't take me a minute. I'm all ready except for putting on a dab of lipstick."

"Well, if Joe's going to have one for the road, you might as well pour me too one—I mean, one, too."

"Oh, don't tell that old joke, dear. I've heard it a thousand times."

"Joe, you never heard a word I say."

"If there is such a thing as another life, I'm going to come back a man. Men think they're the kings of the earth."

"Joe used to go fishing with his pals, but now I go with him. I always say, a family that plays together stays together."

"It isn't that I really mind your playing poker, but don't you ever win?"

"Well, if you want my advice."

"You can't mean that's the one you were crazy about in college, Joe. She looks like the moths had been at her."

"Joe, are you listening to me?"

"You can play Boy Scout in the backyard if you want to, but the rest of us are going to eat in the house like civilized people."

"Every husband in the neighborhood carries more life insurance than you. Some men care about their family's welfare."

"Sure I used to be jealous over Joe — when he had hair."

"Joe, we used to have so much to say to each other. Why is it we never talk anymore."

Government Drops Charges Against Six

CLEVELAND (AP)—The government Wednesday dropped conspiracy charges against six Ohioans, convicted three years ago of Smith Act violations.

Their conviction after a lengthy trial in Cleveland was reversed by the U.S. District Court of Appeals and a retrial was ordered. The government identified all of them as members of the Communist Party.

They are Frank Hashmall, 39, former youth director of the Ohio section of the party; Anthony Krchmarek, 61, former Ohio party chief; George Watt, 49, once the party's national labor secretary; Mrs. Lucille Bethencourt, 31, former Lorain, Ohio, party leader; and Joseph Brandt, 49, and Martin Chancey, 51.

Charges against them were "reluctantly dropped," said Russell E. Ake, district attorney, because "We can't meet the requirements set down by the Supreme Court in the Yates case."

The Supreme Court held that the government, in prosecuting under the Smith Act, must show that persons were inciting immediate action to overthrow the government.

In reversing the 1956 conviction of the six, the Court of Appeals held on May 24, 1958, that "the record does not contain evidence enough to support conviction on a charge of conspiracy to overthrow the government."

The trial before Federal Judge Charles J. McNamee took three months to complete, during which more than a million words of testimony were taken.

The men were sentenced to five-year terms and the woman received a 2½ year sentence.

Charges against them were dropped formally today when Judge McNamee granted a motion by the government to dismiss the case.

Working Students Must Have Permits

LISBON — Parents of children in the county rural school system who plan to work this fall must apply at the county school superintendents' office in the Courthouse for a working permit.

Children seeking working permits must be 16 years of age and through the 7th grade, Supt. James L. McBride said. They must show birth certificates or other documents giving proof of their age.

NAMED AUCTIONEER

LISBON — Donald H. Stafford of Minerva RD 1 qualified as an auctioneer Wednesday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard. He posted a $1,000 bond and paid the $5 yearly fee.

Must Present Inoculation Forms

LISBON — All pupils in high schools or elementary schools in the county system who have been vaccinated against small pox and immunized against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus should take a written statement of that fact to the school principal the first day of school, according to James L. McBride, county school superintendent.

Students who had some of the shots should present statements listing the inoculations they have had and those they are in the process of receiving.

Forms will be sent home with the students the first day of school for the parents to fill out. These must be returned promptly. The answer to these questions will give school authorities a record of such immunizations for the schools files.

Students who have not had the complete series of shots must obtain them promptly and bring statements that they are in the process of obtaining these shots, or be excluded from school, McBride said.

County Bar Assn. Plans Golf Outing

The Columbiana County Bar Association will hold its second summer golf and dinner meeting of the year next Thursday, at the Salem Golf Club.

Golfing and get acquainted activities will feature the afternoon session. A dinner will follow.

Steel Hands In Velvet Gloves

From now until Labor Day — and beyond then if the steel strike continues — President Eisenhower will be swamped with volunteers wanting to help him get the Steelworkers back on their jobs.

Most of these cheerful helpers will be in politics, or on the fringe of politics. All of them will have an eye fixed on the main chance, which is the credit they hope to win for themselves by helping to break a deadlock in the steel industry's labor relations.

The most massive meddling to date is a move by 32 Democratic senators led by Missouri's Stuart Symington to frame and adopt a resolution that would put the White House into the steel strike, all the way up to Harry Truman's famous "back porch."

It supposedly is being offset by two Republican senators, George D. Aiken of Vermont and Jacob K. Javits of New York, who are merely proposing that the White House tell what Labor Secretary Mitchell has turned up in his fact-finder role.

But the political fact of life here is that the Aiken - Javits move to put Mitchell on the spot is as ill-advised as the Symington proposal to put the White House on the spot. is as ill-advised as the Symington proposal to put the White House on the spot. President Eisenhower does not want either his administration or his own office to become involved directly in the pulling and hauling over a new contract in the steel industry.

This is a cardinal point of Eisenhower policy.

THE PRESIDENT has rejected the policy of his two predecessors that the federal government should be a third party in every negotiation over a labor contract.

He has embraced the policy that collective bargaining should be a negotiation entered into and carried on in good faith between management and labor, with the federal government playing the role of chairman and mediator — never the role of participant.

From the presidential point of view, contrary to a bland and cynical assumption that Mr. Eisenhower is only biding his time to utter a peremptory command that would stop the strike, the steel industry must talk itself out of the deadlock it has talked itself into.

The President's only concern is that national defense should not be penalized by the deadlock, and so far this has caused no concern. It is more than likely that this is the one thing above all else that Secretary Mitchell is whatching in his official fact-finding chore.

It is likely he may have filed away still another fact that will loom large in presidential thinking about the problems created by a steel strike.

BACK IN THE ERA when John L. Lewis, president of United Mine Workers, was developing much of the strategy of modern bargaining, the union learned how to use the strike to regularize the supply of coal above the ground.

It did not matter to Mr. Lewis what arguments and pressures were brought to bear on him to get the miners back to work. He ran his strikes with a hard head and a view to supply and demand. There was no sentimentality. Mr. Lewis was all business.

If the steel industry, as the result of increasing its potential capacity, finally has arrived at a point where the choice in a showdown is between working a shorter week and a shorter year, it should not surprise anyone if it always chooses to work a shorter year. It is more efficient to close down than to slow down.

The year 1959, with a contract expiring, may prove to have been the year when this became obvious to management, to labor and to the U.S. secretary of labor.

Senate Could Scuttle Labor Bill

No sooner had the unexpected news of organized labor's defeat in the House of Representatives been digest last week than plans were laid to kiss unionism's political bruises and make them well in the U.S Senate.

The Senate far more than the House is under the thumb of the union leaders who have gone into politics. It has fewer members to keep track of. Senators are more responsive to the influence of party organizations than representatives.

All it would take to give a Democratic majority in the Senate a chance to scuttle a strong labor bill would be an easy assumption by public opinion that the battle was over. The battle isn't over.

The Democrats who are in the Senate to speak for organized labor's bosses now will do everything in their power to trim down the House bill.

If they cannot trim it down to the specifications that will be prepared for them by the labor bosses, they will do everything in their power to bring about a deadlock, so there will be no legislation at all this session.

The logical thing for the Senate to do, of course, would be to adopt the House bill as its own. Instead, it will try to take the edge off the Landrum-Griffin bill by diluting it with the philosophy of the Kennedy-Ervin bill, which was the Senate's concession cto organized labor. The two measures are incompatible. They aim to do different things.

The Landrum-Griffin bill aims to curb the excesses of the labor monopoly in the United States. The Kennedy-Ervin bill aims to strengthen the labor monopoly by dealing with certain inside practices that tend to weaken it.

Contrary to the blasts of George Meany of AFL-CIO, the Landrum-Griffin bill does not contain anything that would hurt bona fide unionists. It contains some things, though, that would hurt people who exploit unionism and bona fide unionists for their own selfish purposes.

The issue is whether popular indignation is strong enough to impress the Senate as deeply as it impressed the House of Representatives.

A Good Program

Salem's summer playground program which attracted more children last year drew even higher attendance this season, Director Charles Tomlinson has reported.

The average daily attendance of boys and girls at the playlots was 228 during the eight-week period which closed Saturday. The value of the playground's supervised recreation is reflected in steadily increasing attendance each summer. A total of 910 boys and girls was registered, compared to 829 a year ago and 793 two years ago.

The city recreational department's interest in providing wholesome craft and sports activities for restless boys and girls is a credit to the community. Mr. Tomlinson and his chief aide, John Dawson and the playground supervisors are to be commended for their efforts. We hope it will always continue.

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Q. What seems to be troubling you?

A. What doesn't!

Q. Have you felt like this before?

A. Not in a dozen years.

Q. Do you sleep well nights?

A. Yes and also days.

Q. Do you have alarming dreams?

A. Yes, but they are not as alarming as what happens in real life.

Q. How about nightmares?

A. I'm batting 400 in the nightmare column. These nightmares run from two to five afternoons and eight to eleven evenings.

Q. Do you know what a trauma is?

A. After what happened in that game where Boston scored nine runs in the eighth how could I fail to know?

Q. You suffer from a persecution complex, a feeling everybody is after you, don't you?

A. It's no complex. I KNOW everybody is AFTER me!

Q. What form do these pursuers take?

A. They seem to be midgets that turn into monsters at the words "play ball" from a man in a blue suit.

Q. How is your libido?

A. Awful, I may have to dismiss him as a pitcher and use him in the outfield.

Q. Were you happy in your childhood?

A. At times I think I have never been happy since.

Q. Were you denied things to which you thought you were entitled?

A. Only this season.

Q. Are you familiar with Frued and Jung?

A. No. I guess I'm putting all my dependence on Duren and Shantz.

Q. Are you comfortable on this counch?

A. No. EVEN ON A COUCH I HAVE A FEELING I WILL GET SHOVED OFF.

Football Again

Coaches and players buckled down in earnest today as the official starting date brought scholastic football teams onto playing fields throughout the district for first scrimmages.

As the sports pages of yesterday's Salem News so well informed you, at least 20 teams command the attention of the fans in this district. Seven new coaches are shouldering new assignments and, with the re-opening of schools only a few weeks away, interest in football will increase day by day.

It looks like a good season for most of the teams. Salem Senior High School included. The Quakers open Sept. 18 against Cleveland Lincoln at Reilly Stadium, with five other home games on the nine-game schedule.

The fans who recall Salem's scrappy teams of the past two seasons are getting their season tickets already. Have you got yours?

A grand mother who won the vote as the belle of a bathing beauty parade has been barred because of age. This seems cruel. A grandmother who aspires to beauty parades must be a little crocked but she rates recognition for perserverance. It's probably all for the best. Who wants to ask: "My socks need mending. Where's grandma?" and get the reply: "She's in a beauty parade and won't touch a needle and thread until it's over."

Ike Influenced by Red Efforts

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, watching the Soviet rush to come abreast of the United States, feels this country needs some driving urge to think less of leisure and money and more of work and achievement.

So, before setting out for Moscow later this year to return Premier Nikita Khrushchev's mid-September visit here, Eisenhower's thinking is being influenced by the Soviet' efforts.

He is very conscious of those efforts. This may be why earlier this year, in his State of the Union message, he proposed creating a committee to suggest goals for America.

The President is now ready—although he hasn't said so publicly—to name this committee as soon as he can get private organizations to pay for its work. He doesn't want the government to foot the bill.

Eisenhower is known to think that national goals might give us an incentive toward which to work, just as the Soviet Union has had its five and seven-year plans.

He looks upon those Soviet plans, which keep the people hard at work, as the moral equivalent of war.

He thinks we need something in this country as an incentive to get our minds on accomplishment and not on a shorter work week and more leisure.

We must attach more importance, he thinks, to good, hard work and less to progress by demagoguery or trying to make a million.

On the short work week, he recalls wartime talks with a French professor who said the cause of France's defeat in 1940 came from trying to match a French four-day week against Hitler's seven-day week.

The President, remembering Edward Gibbon's "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," thinks that is what is happening to us now, that we are too interested in leisure and pleasure.

That's a gloomy view for a president. It seems to be overlooking one thing: that Gibbon's criterion for judging civilization and progress was the measure in which men's happiness is secured, and of that happiness he considered political freedom an essential condition.

So, while the Soviets have made material strides, their lack of freedom is the opposite of Gibbon's conception of happiness, while to Gibbon the freedom enjoyed by Americans would be a mark of progress, civilization, and happiness.

But Eisenhower seems to have varying views on the Soviet Union at various times.

While at one time he considers the seven-year plan as the moral equivalent of war and is impressed by the work it gets done, at another time he notes that to increase production, the Communists must offer incentives, like extra pay.

There is, of course, an essential difference between Khrushchev's seven-year plan and any American goals thought up by a study committee.

One is mandatory in a soviet where the state has absolute control over the people and the means of production; the other would have to be voluntary in a free enterprise system.

Khrushchev, for instance, can order Soviet steel production capacity doubled and at the same time not only can find a ready market for every ounce of steel produced but decide where and for what it shall be used.

No matter what goals a president's committee proposes, the steel industry is free to increase its capacity only as there is a free and competitive market for its product.

Eisenhower never precisely explained in his State of the Union message just what goals he had in mind. Presumably, he would let his committee figure this out.

He said the committee would be concerned with living standards, health, education, greater assurance of life, liberty and opportunities, and methods to meet such goals, and what state, federal and local governments should be concerned.

Big Ben In Disrepute

By GLORIA KLEIN

LONDON

This year Britons are celebrating the 100th birthday of that symbol of security and strength — Big Ben—but there may be a peacetime repetition of what it took the German air fleet to do in war: Muffle the voice of the great clock.

Except for repairs, the only time Big Ben was silenced voluntarily was during World War I. German Zeppelin raids were feared in 1916 sufficiently to muffle all public clocks in London and so even Big Ben held his tongue each day from sunset to sunrise.

Today the huge timepiece is threatened with silence from midnight to 6 a.m., not because of any danger of enemy air attack but because some Londoners living near Westminster Hall say that its thunderous bell disturbs their slumber.

Particularly upset are the staffs of some hospitals located in that part of the British capital. They feel that, symbol or not, Big Ben does more harm than good by upsetting patients' sleep every 15 minutes — night after night.

The parliamentary undersecretary to the ministry of works, Harmar Nicholls, has told Parliament that for two years he occupied lodgings near the great British landmark and was not at all upset. "I can assure you I slept very well," he said.

But a Laborite member of the House of Commons has sided with those who would like the bell silenced, at least during the night. Frank Allaun, who may be a lighter sleeper than Undersecretary Nicholls, called the clock "this booming nuisance" and urged that it be stilled.

If it is, it will be the first time the 16-ton bell was silenced by reasons of insomnia — though it has been quieted several times for other, more dramatic, reasons.

For example, the big bell cracked in September, 1859, just a few weeks after being installed. It didn't toll properly again for three years.

It was stopped about a dozen other times because of mechanical failures, usually caused by a workman leaving a hammer or pot of paint where he shouldn't have.

In 1944 Big Ben was stopped from June to September as a result of the Nazi air raid which wrecked the House of Commons, above which the 300-fot clock tower stands. Up until that point, radio broadcasts of the famous sound were interspersed by the din of sirens and falling bombs, but then a recording of the tolls was used on the BBC broadcasts which told how an embattled britain was fighting on.

Nature has occasionally halted the timepiece, too. For instance, there was the misguided flight of starlings which fluttered into the works in 1949. And a drift of frozen snow brought things to a stop in 1955.

Matter of Fact

From the time of the Middle Ages, bell casting has been considered an important art. Early bell founders first drew their designs carefully on paper. Although the shape of the bell was very important, its pitch depended upon the thickness of the metal. The founders went to the town or village where the bell was to be hung, and made it there.

Lessons On Freedom

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Nikita Could Learn Much From Strike Publicity

There's beginning to be a bit of sensitivity about what Nikita Khrushchev should hear or see or read while he is in the United States. If he is well advised and really wants to know how the capitalistic system functions, there are two advertisements published in the newspapers in the last few days which will tell him things that may surprise him. They constitute a dramatic lesson in economics.

David Lawrence

Pronouncement No. 1 is on the subject of inflation and shows that in America everybody has a right to speak out in the hope of influencing public opinion so as to bring about self restraint among organized groups. Remedies that in the Soviet Union would be applied by police or military force are left to the people of America themselves to work out through appeals to reason.

Pronouncement No. 2 gives the viewpoint of the steel companies in answer to a previous advertisement by the Steelworkers Union which had pointed to the profits of the employer companies as "fantastic," and had argued that these provide money enough to pay increased wages without a price rise. The steel companies reply that this year the "Steelworkers' increased pay outstripped the owners' dividend increase 86-1."

MORE IMPORTANT than the debate over whether the profits were large enough to pay more wage increases is the news contained in the statement by the steel companies as to what they did with their profits. The explanation was as follows:

"Roughly one-third of the profit was "phantom profit' which had to be used to cover the inflated cost of replacing worn out tools and facilities. This one-third provided nothing for the owners — nothing for expansion. It had to be used just to stand still. Otherwise the steel industry would die a little each year as its plants wore out. And so would the jobs of its more than 600,000 employes and the invested savings of its more than one million shareowners.

"Another third or so of the profit went to meet the continuing need for improved or enlarged plants and equipment, necessary working capital, new sources of raw materials, new research facilities, and to improve productive effieiency generally. This was the 're-invested profit' that provides for America's industrial growth, sustains job security and steadily raises the standard of living of the American people.

"What was left of the profit — 263 million dollars — went to the owners of the steel companies in the form of dividends. This was the only payment they received from their companies for the use of all the tools that their savings have provided; and it represented an annual return of about 3 per cent on the present market value of their investment. That is about the same return you get on your savings account at the bank — less than on a government bond."

THIS DEBATE, revealing how the capitalistic system works, goes on in the midst of a strike that has tied up the entire steel industry and is an example of the free interplay of the forces of public opinion which will eventually influence a settlement of the dispute.

Pronouncement No. 1 was presented more graphically in an advertisement from another quarter. A big photograph of a pistol, with a lot of bullets beside it, carried the heading: "The biggest robbery this country has ever known." This was published by Young & Rubicam, an advertising agency in the famous Madison Ave. district in New York which is often referred to as the source of many ideas that influence the political battles of our democracy.

The declaration was undoubtedly designed to affect public opinion by dramatizing the inflation issue. It said:

"Last year, a thief stole money from 160 million people — including you. He stole some of your food money, some of your savings, some of all the money you earned. He stole some the year before last, the year before that. And unless something is done about it, he'll keep on stealing.

"Who is the thief? The name isn't important — call him 'inflation,' 'high cost of living,' 'the shrinking dollar,' anything you like.

"But what is important is the historical fact that in any country where this inflationary process has been carried to a conclusion, the result has been depression; not 'recession,' but depression — a dark, agonizing period of hardship, poverty and suffering, often leading to revolution and dictatorship."

THE ARGUMENT continues with the suggestion that the government can help by living within its income, while business and labor should be "both judicious and responsible" with respect to pricing and profit-taking and to requests for increased pay.

The people as a whole, moreover, are urged not to demand the spending of money by the government for "improvements" unless they are willing to shoulder increased taxes to pay for them.

Here we have debate on the free enterprise and the free trade union system. Both may from time to time bring excesses but, precisely because these are recognized and publicly discussed, they are eventually resolved by the processes of American public opinion. By noting this form of discussion, Nikita Khrushchev may learn something constructive about what is meant by freedom as opposed to the rule of dictatorship.

Nixon-Rockefeller Ticket

By RAYMOND MOLEY

MONTPELIER, Vt.

Talks with Republican politicians and editors in Vermont, hard by Gov. Rockefeller's big Empire State, together with a wafting of opinions from New Hampshire and Connecticut, lead me to believe that party leaders are finding comfort in a Nixon-Rockefeller, or, as some say, a Rockefeller - Nixon ticket in 1960. A happy compromise is the eternal dream of a politician, something that prevents a party fight and makes for that state of idyllic repose called unity.

Small states near a big one are influenced heavily by such a giant as New York. And since the rules of politics favor a delegation from New York which will almost certainly be for its new favorite son, the little fellows near by, who have no favorite son — and if they had one, he could be nothing in national convention but an oddity —are not unfriendly to the New York governor.

IN ANY EVENT, politicians from a small state have in common with the entire political genre a dread, above all things, of being left high and dry after a candidate is nominated and elected. They are then dropped far down in priority when jobs and favors are distributed.

In the years after Franklin D. Roosevelt was elected there was an alphabetical description of top priority, RBC, meaning Roosevelt-before-Chicago. Those happy early supporters who had nothing to lose but their contributions up to the convention were soon ensconced in embassies such as Paris, London, and Rome or in the Cabinet or in chairmanships of important commissions. Even James Michael Curley, who yearned for Rome, was offered Warsaw.

Those who had stuck to Smith or Ritchie or other also-rans had only the dry, withered remainders from the plum tree after Roosevelt, Farley and Co. had seated the holders of the ringside tickets.

The obvious advantage now enjoyed by Vice President Nixon is a hard and possible durable reality to give even a Vermont or New Hampshire Republican pause.

"Here is something for which there must be an escape clause," they say to themselves. A suggestion, it is said, emanating from the warmish spot on which former Gov. Dewey is sitting provides a wonderful solution. How about a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket?

THE PROSPECT pleases on almost every side. Rockefeller is young. He can wait eight years, maybe only four, if Nixon should lose and Rockefeller is re-elected governor of New York. He would be a wonderful helper for a hard-working president.

His name is blessed in many lands, far and near, which have experienced the ameliorating ministrations of the Rockefeller Foundation and the Rockefeller Institute.

Of course, when Republican politicans are pressed about a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket, they will also say that Ike could be Rockefeller-Nixon. But they are likely to add "Probably Nixon wouldn't take second place." But that doesn't hurt speculation on a fine solution.

While Nixon was not the originator of the idea, he must suffer from any disillusionment that would follow. That leaves the Rockefeller candidacy a possibility which must not be overlooked.

That is why the parts of the proposed ticket are made interchangeable. There will be plenty of watching and waiting by those seated comfortably on the fence.

Still Costlier Loans, Tighter Money Seen by Economists

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Still costlier loans and still tighter money are predicted today.

Interest rates already are starting another climb. There are more complaints from home builders of trouble in finding someone to lend them money against a mortgage.

Part of this is due to the policy of the nation's money managers. They've wanted credit to be tight to stave off a speculative boom that could spur fresh inflation—an old-fashioned word which President Eisenhower's Cabinet committee on price stability for economic growth now refers to as "rises in the general price level."

But bankers here insist that most of the reason for tighter money isn't Washington policy itself. It's the law of supply and demand. People are slowing down on their rate of savings. At the same time they—either as individuals or as managers of business or as officials of federal, state or local governments—have been stepping up their demand for loans.

When the demand for money grows faster than the supply—fed by savings normally, or by the printing presses abnormally—interest rates go up.

It's this squeeze in which the secretary of the Treasury finds himself. He has to borrow money because the government is spending more just now than it is taking in from the taxpayers; billions of dollars worth of outstanding securities are coming due and can be repaid only by borrowing more money (known as refunding the debt); and holders of savings bonds are redeeming them in greater volume than others are buying new ones.

The secretary is having trouble selling bonds because investors can get a higher return from several other kinds of investments. That's why the Treasury wanted Congress to let it pay higher yields on savings bonds.

The Treasury can compete with other borrowers in the short-term money market because there is no legal limit on the interest it pays—and that charge is now the highest in years.

But the law forbids the treasury to pay more than 4¼ per cent interest on any bond running for five years or longer. The House Ways and Means Committee has just pigeonholed President Eisenhower's request to let the Treasury pay more. And the secretary says he can't find any one who'll lend him money at the present rate.

Bankers here say that with the Treasury now confined to doing all it's borrowing at short term, the market will get all the tighter and tend to force interest rates higher.

FACE ROBBERY COUNT

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Frank L. O'Neal, 30, of Punta Gorda, Fla., has waived extradition and will be returned to Canton, Ohio, today, authorities said. He faces charges connected with a grocery store robbery July 18.

O'Neal was arrested here Aug. 1 on a federal charge of fleeing to avoid prosecution. He is accused of taking part in the robbery in which the store owner fatally shot Joe Zsabo, whom police said was with O'Neal.

Pan American Day on April 14 is the only special day that is recognized by the governments of all 21 of the American republics.

Methodist Pastor, Wife Wed 25 Years

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Richardson, who are serving the New Waterford and Negley Methodist Churches, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Tuesday, with open house in the Negley Church.

The celebration will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. The date is also the Rev. Richardson's birthday anniversary.

The former Josephine Alton and Rev. Anderson were married on Aug. 25, 1934 by the late Rev. J. Frank Stewart in the First Methodist Church in Wellsville.

The Richardsons have three children, Charles, a ministerial student at Mount Union College; Dorothy and Sharon at home.

Rev. Richardson has served the following churches: Yorkville, Fosterville, Deersville, Tippecanoe, Bowerstown and New Waterford.

HATS, THIS FALL, ARE HIGH AND TOWERING, tailored or very tiny and feminine. It depends on the time of day and the costume. Deep dented cloche (upper left) by Irene of New York is in walnut velvet. Peacock velours hat (upper center) by Walter Florell has black satin tab at the front, covers much of the hair. Miniature satin pillbox for late day (upper right) has cartridge pleated crown, silk rose trim. It's typical of the tiny and feminine hats for evening wear. White lamp cone hat (lower left) by Sally Victor shows the influence of Mrs. Victor's recent visit to Russia. Shirred pillbix (lower center) in deep red has velvet cord trim. It's a Hattie Carnegie design. The velvet pillbox for late day (lower right) is a beautiful hat bordered in white mink and trimmed with a jeweled pink rose. This is by Chanda. Many of the fall hats have been designed to keep company with semibouffant hairdos.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Fete Miss Schmidt

Miss Patricia Schmidt was feted at three pre-nuptial courtesies recently in honor of her forthcoming marriage to Francis D. McNicol, which will be an event of Aug. 29 at 10:30 a.m. in St. Paul Catholic Church.

Mrs. John Keskock of Campbell and Mrs. Michael Kachmer of Detroit were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower. The guests were former classmates of the honoree at St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing.

Crazy bridge was enjoyed, after which the hostesses served a buffet supper.

An afternoon of bridge was enjoyed by former high school classmates and close friends of the bride-elect when Mrs. Roger Knabe of Kent entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Louise Kieffer of 377 W. 10th.

Summer bouquets in crystal and silver vases enhanced the home.

Prizes for the afternoon were presented to Miss Schmidt as gifts.

Mrs. Kieffer assisted her daughter in serving lunch.

A yellow ceramic sprinkler filled with pink and white snapdragons and carnations centered the gift table for the kitchen shower given by Mrs. Stephen A. Gonda of 974 Homewood Ave.

Guests present were relatives and friends of the prospective bride and bridegroom.

The evening was spent informally with game honors going to Miss Carmen McNicol, Miss Sally Scullion and Mrs. Edwin Probert.

Mrs. Gonda was assisted in serving by Miss McNicol and Miss Scullion.

Miss Scullion has issued invitations for a "spinster" dinner party to be held Tuesday at her home on E. 6th St.

Mrs. May McLaughlin and daughter, Mrs. Pat Flaghtery of Downey, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Tate of Canfield, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Batzli of RD 1, Winona.

Golf Club Women Plan Corn Roast

"Barnyard Frolic" is the theme for the annual corn roast of the Women's Association of the Salem Golf Club to be held Tuesday.

Golf will begin at 1 p.m., with dinner and the party scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Brian and Mrs. Alfred Konnerth are chairmen for the event.

Guest day was observed at the regular meeting of the Association Tuesday.

Low gross, low net was the tournament for the day. Respective winners in the 18-hole play were: Class A, Mrs. Edward Pukalski, Mrs. Olive Ramsey; Class B, Miss Joan Crawford, Mrs. Terry Nash; Class C, Mrs. Lester Batemann, Mrs. Delmar Smith; Class D, low gross only, Mrs. Kenneth Pinkerton.

Mrs. Joseph Greenwood received honors for low putts for 18-holes.

Low net winners for nine holes guest, first;; and Mrs. Joseph Merrick, second, who also had low putts for nine holes.

SANITARY SEWERS

The proposed work designated as Contract No. 1 Sanitary sewers consists of the construction of approximately 16,375 lineal feet of vitrified pipe sewers varying in size from 8 to 12 inches in diameter, and all appurtenances.

Copies of the plans and specifications and blank proposals may be obtained or examined at the office of the Village Clerk after August 22, 1959. Payment in the amount of twenty five ($25) dollars will be required for each set of plans and specifications taken from the above office. Check in payment for the plans and specifications shall be made to the Village of Washingtonville, Ohio.

The full amount of deposit for plans and specifications will be refunded upon return of the same in good condition within thirty (30) days of bid opening date.

Each proposal shall contain the full name and address of the party, or parties, making the same and all persons interested therein, and shall be accompanied by a certified check, bid bond or draft on a solvent bank in the sum of five 5) percent of the amount bid and made payable to the Village of Washingtonville, or by a proposal bond signed by a surety company authorized to do business in Ohio, as a guarantee that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into and the performance of it properly secured by a one hundred (100%) percent performance bond.

No proposal will be entertained unless made on the blanks attached to the bound document and furnished by the Village previous to twelve (12:00) o'clock noon, (Eastern Standard Time) on the day specified.

All of the work under Contract No. 1 will be awarded to one bidder with the lowest and best total bid price.

The bidders attention is directed to the necessity of starting the work on or before October 1, 1959 in order to comply with Federal Grant Regulations.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of forty-five (45) days after the time of opening bids.

The Village reserves the right to reject any and all bids, waive any informalities or irregularities in the bids received, and to accept the lowest and best bid.

Deaths and Funerals

Stone Infant

Jane Marie Stone, two-week-old daughter of Frank and June Chappell Stone of 1466 Shady Lane, died of complications at 7 p.m. Wednesday at St. Vincent's Hospital in Cleveland.

She was born Aug. 5, at Salem City Hospital.

Besides her parents, she leaves a sister, Peggy; two brothers, Paul and Jimmy; and grandparents, Mrs. Margaret Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Chappell of Salem.

Services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at the Arbaugh-Pearce Funeral Home with the Rev. Fr. J. Richard Gaffney of St. Paul Cabe in Grandview Cemetery.

Unemployed Lisbon Man Takes Own Life

LISBON — Funeral services for Dola Ernie Greenwell, 50, of Grant St., who took his life Wednesday about 11:45 a.m. at his home by shooting himself with a shotgun, will be held Friday at 3 p.m. at the Woolf Funeral Home in Ravenna.

Neighbors said he was despondent because he was unable to find work.

He was born March 7, 1909, in Elizabeth, Tenn., and had worked at the Ravenna Arsenal from 1951-56, when he moved to Lisbon.

He is survived by his wife, Helen; a daughter, Debbie, a stepdaughter Cheryl Bracken and two sons, Bobbie Allen and William Leonard.

Burial will be in the Maple Grove Cemetery in Ravenna.

Friends may call at the funeral home this evening.

Mrs. Asa Donaldson

Mrs. Ruth Donaldson, 35, of Beaver, Pa., died Wednesday morning at the Elizabeth Steel Magee Hospital in Pittsburgh, following a lingering illness.

Born in Negley, June 12, 1924, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cope.

She recently made her home with her sister, Mrs. Robert Marriner of Main St., Leetonia.

Besides Mrs. Marriner, she leaves her husband, Asa, of Freedom, Pa.; a son, Richard and two daughters, Karen and Pamela at home; four brothers and four other sisters.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Ice Show Friday Night

The highlight of Friday night's program will be "Frostie Follies," an ice show in front of the grandstand, preceded by the livestock and machinery parade at 7 p.m.

Saturday morning the little draft horses or the ponies will show their strength in front of the grandstand in two pulling contests, one for ponies under 46" and the other for ponies 46 to 50 inches inclusive.

Saturday afternoon four fine harness races will be presented featuring a 2 year old trot and the 3 year old pace, each for a purse of $1,200, and the 2:18 pace and the free for all pace for a purse of $500 each.

The final night of the Fair will see the last livestock and machinery parade followed by "Frostie Follies" Ice Revue on real ice in front of the grandstand.

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 5 p.m. in the center of the race oval there will be a balloon ascension by John Oliver, 70-year-old Lisbon jeweler. The balloon will be filled with gas on the grounds.

'Miracle Miner,' Family to Start New Life In U.S.

SPRINGHILL, N. S. (AP) — Levi Milley, one of the miracle miners who escaped last October's cave-in after almost a week underground, leaves next week with his family to start a new life in Phenix City, Ala.

It's a remarkable chain of events that takes the 47-year-old Milley, his wife Velda and their daughter, Judy, 18, away from their home and life-long friends.

Last November the Milleys accepted an invitation to vacation in Georgia with other survivors of the mine disaster. While there, a picture of blonde Judy appeared in a Georgia newspaper.

Meanwhile, the Milleys decided to break with mining.

"We'd thought about it for a long time," said Milley, a miner for 29 years. "The cave-in was the last straw. I knew I'd never go down again."

They liked the idea of going to the United States. "We only thought of the north, perhaps Massachusetts." But the American Consulate told them they needed a sponsor to get in.

Judy mentioned the problem to her Georgia pen pal. He inserted a notice about the family's plight in the Columbus newspaper. A construction firm president in Phenix City—across the Chattahoochee River from Columbus, wrote to the consulate in Halifax offering to sponsor the family.

The construction man—who requested that his name be kept secret—also offered Milley a job in his firm, plus plane tickets to Alabama and a rent-free, furnished house.

The Milleys are excited about meeting the new friends they have never seen.

"Just imagine what wonderful people they must be," Mrs. Milley said. "They've given us a whole new life—and they've never even met us."

FOUR FORFEIT IN LISBON

LISBON — Four truck drivers Wednesday forfeited bonds totaling $122 in Mayor John Todd's court when they failed to appear for hearings on overload charges.

Forfeiting bonds were:

Jack Albright, 29, of 889 W. Wilson St., Salem, $47; and Wilbur Hawthorne, 31, N. Beaver St., Lisbon, Terry Decker, 20, of Barnesville, and Glenn Neff, 27, of Jacobsburg, each $25. They were cited by the State Highway patrol.

Police Thwart Bid to Free Prisoner

NAHANT, Mass. (AP)—A gang of 15 men, some armed with clubs and lengths of pipe, burst into the Nahant police station early today in a wild but futile attempt to free a prisoner.

The gang fled when a patrolman struck two of them with his revolver and fired a warning shot.

A short while later the seven became prisoners themselves on charges which included inciting a riot, attempting to free a prisoner, assault, assault and battery, and drunkenness.

Four of the gang were caught at a roadblock and three at the Lynn hospital where two had gone for treatment of bruises suffered in the scuffle in the police station.

Police Chief Benjamin Lamphier said the gang tried to liberate Donald Stinson, 27, of Swampscott, who was locked up on a drunkenness charge.

Patrolman Albert Badger said he was alone in the police station when the gang drove up in three automobiles.

He said he had time to utter only the word "Nahant" into the police radio before the men backed him against a wall.

Patrolman Joseph Flynn, driving a cruiser, heard the one-word message and the sound of several voices coming over the radio.

He sped to the station and found three men tampering with the door of the cell which held Stinson.

Flyn herded the trio upstairs, only to be pushed against a wall by the others. As one man threatened him with a club, he said, pulled out his gun and struck two of them.

As the men were fleeing after Flynn fired a shot, Badget sounded an "assist" alarm over the police radio and help came from surrounding communities.

21 Die As Airliner Crashes In Spain

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — A holiday in Spain ended in death for 21 British students Wednesday when their chartered airliner shattered on a fog-wrapped mountain peak. The British crew of three and the eight other passengers also were killed. The students were returning to London. The twin-engine plane plowed into the 2,400-foot peak of Man 25 miles northeast of here.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

William Meyers, 18, of Midland, Pa., is the winner of a four-year scholarship in engineering at Tri-State College, Angola, Indiana, awarded by the Herriott Trucking Co. of East Palestine, it was announced today by Kenneth Herriott, president of the trucking firm.

BOY ATTACKED BY CAT

LISBON — Terry Kampfer, 13, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kampfer of Salineville RD 1 who was attacked Monday afternoon by a pet cat, is in good condition today at his home.

The County Health Department sent the cat's head to the State Health Department for rabies test.

A negative report was received late Wednesday from the state, Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, said.

Labor

Most of the plant's 435 workers began walking out Tuesday night.

Following a talk by an international representative from the United Steelworkers Union, about 100 employes returned for Wednesday's afternon shift.

Plant manager E. J. Baxter said the walkout apparently was prompted by disciplinary action against an employe.

But elsewhere the picture was not so hopeful.

The Natural Gas Workers Union voted Wednesday night by a 2-1 margin to strike against the East Ohio Gas Co. Union president John Nagle said the effective date for the walkout would be set Saturday. It involves a reported 2,500 workers in nine northeastern Ohio cities.

Nearly 8,000 workers at Timken Roller Bearing Co. plants in Canton, Columbus, Wooster and Mount Vernon also threaten a strike.

The company said negotiators for the United Steelworkers have turned down a proposal to extend its collective bargaining contract for three years. Canton and Columbus locals have voted to strike if a new agreement is not reached by Sunday midnight. The contract expires Monday.

Other strike areas include:

Cincinnati—Some 200 members of the reinforced concrete workers union have been on strike since July 9 seeking a pay boost.

Dayton—About 550 workers at two plants are idle. At Monsanto Chemical Co.'s Mound Laboratory about 400 workers are out over differences in a new contract. And at the Joyce-Cridland Co., makers of hydraulic lifts, about 150 workers are striking over fringe benefits.

Green Camp near Marion—Some 180 Goodrich Rubber Co. workers are striking after talks failed to produce any agreement on a supplemental contract.

Springfield — Some 400 United Auto Workers at the Bauer Brothers Co., a firm that makes paper and pulp machinery, have been off the job since their old contract expired Aug. 1.

East Palestine Boy Hurt In 2-Car Crash

Ronald A. Parker, 16, of RD 2, East Palestine, is in fair condition today at Salem City Hospital following an early morning traffic accident.

The youth suffered a broken right arm in the two-car collision at the junction of Rts. 170 and 14 in Unity at 3 a.m. today, he told hospital attendants. The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon had no report of the accident on file this morning.

Hot Weather Still Grips Nation's East

By The Associated Press

The nation's weather appeared stuck in its familiar pattern of the past couple of weeks today. It was fairly pleasant in western sections, hot and humid in most of the eastern half of the country.

Cool air spread from the far Northwest across northern states into parts of the Dakotas. It was expected to move across the Dakotas and into western parts of Nebraska, bringing welcome relief to areas hit by temperatures of above 100 degrees the past two days. Readings in the cool belt were a mixture of 50s and 60s.

But east of the cool air, it was warm and humid in most sections. An exception was the region from New England southward through Pennsylvania and West Virginia where temperatures were in the pleasant 60s most of the night.

Fair weather has indicated in the far southeast and the northern half of the Atlantic Coast states. Partly cloudy to cloudy conditions, with scattered thundershowers, were in prospect for other parts of the country.

David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers president, said Mitchell's report "presents a positive contribution to acquaint the American people with the facts of he tremendous productivity record achieved in the steel industry and the overwhelming ability of the steel industry to share a portion of such gains with the public, industry workers and stockholders of the industry.

"It documents the soundness and equity of the position of the steelworkers union in the controversy with the steel industry."

Negotiations still are under way in New York, but there have been no indications of progress.

Fleet Adm. Halsey To Be Buried Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation today buries one of its great naval heroes, Fleet Adm. William F. Halsey.

Final military tribute was prepkared for the pugnacious "Bull" Halsey, whose 3rd Fleet outfoxed the Japanese Admiralty and sank the best of its fighting ships in World War II.

he died Sunday. The retired admiral was 76.

His body lay, with honor guard, in Washington National Cathedral. It was brought here Wednesday from Fishers Island, N.Y., where he died Sunday. The retired admiral was 76.

Gathering for the Cathedral services and the burial in Arlington National Cemetery this afternoon were the chief civilian and military leaders of the Defense Department, government officials, many personal friends and some of those who served with Halsey in the great days of the mighty Pacific campaigns.

50 African Women Jailed In Dispute

DURBAN, South Africa (AP)—African women in southern Natal province Wednesday night kept up their defiance of government restrictions on their race.

Between 40 and 50 women were jailed at Escourt, 60 miles northwest of Pietermaritzburg, after they attacked the manager of a municipal beer hall.

The African women are fighting regulations which forbid them to make and sell their own potent home brew.

Health Group Hears County Home Plans

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners met Wednesday at the Wick Hotel with the executive board of the Columbiana County Mental Health Association to explain the proposed construction of the new county home for the aged.

Architect Robert Beatty of East Liverpool displayed drawings of the proposed $989,000 structure which would house 250 persons.

Commissioners answered questions pertaining to the half-mill levy to be placed on the November ballot for financing the project.

The board voted to make a tour of inspection of the existing structure following the September luncheon meeting.

In other business the board decided to continue the October public educational program series.

Members also decided to have a booth at the county fair to distribute educational materials. Association members from the various communities will staff the booth.

'War' Shapes Up on Food Surplus Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A modern-day "war between the states" shaped up in the House today over a bill to continue the program of disposing of United States surplus food abroad.

It centered around a proposal which in effect would restrict the use of St. Lawrence Seaway ports for the food shipments.

Offered by Rep. Eugene J. Keogh (D-NY), the proposal was promptly labeled as "a new war between the states" by midwesterners headed by Rep. Sidney R. Yates D-Ill).

The effect of the amendment would be to nullify administration plans to station cargo inspectors in Montreal, where smaller ships operating from midwestern ports on the seaway now unload for trans-shipment abroad.

Auditor Reports on Reappraisal Progress

LISBON — A partial survey of Lisbon property has been completed in the reappraisal of county real estate property, according to Auditor Kenneth Bell.

All of Washington Twp. and most of Wayne Twp. has been completed, except Salineville. The work in Franklin Twp. is progressing satisfactory, he said.

Appraisals of Knox Twp. has been started, and most homes around Westville Lake are finished, he added.

Seven men have been hired so far to reappraise farms and homes.

Ohio's Top Plowmen In Action Today

EATON, Ohio (AP)—The average city dweller may think plowing a field is just a routine part of operating a farm, but there's an art to it, too.

And today an estimated 5,000 persons were to gather on a farm, two and a half miles south of West Alexandria, to watch Ohio's top plowmen in action.

The event is the annual Ohio Conservation Field Day and Plowing Contest held this year at the Nevin Grice farm on Ohio 503.

In addition to the level land and contour plowing contests, there were exhibits of the latest farm machinery. A special program was planned for the ladies throughout the day and Lt. Gov. John Donahey was to speak when the new champions are crowned in mid-afternoon.

Both of last year's champions were to be on hand to defend their titles. They are Raymond Poos of Eaton, who won the 1958 level land plowing contest, and Wilbur Rase of Wheelersburg, last year's contour plowing champ.

Poos put his level land title on the block during the forenoon against John McCarty of Peebles; Paul Miller of Lowell; ichard Cleaves of Continental; Robert Cook of Urbana; Howard Will of Vermillion, and James Guckian of Camden.

Four were to compete against Rase in the contour event in the Duane Mootz of Hillsboro, who won the 1957 national championship and competed in the international contest in Germany. The others are John Rech of Marietta, Robert Griesser of Springfield and Daniel Postlethwait of Mogadore.

MARQUEE INJURES SIX

CLEVELAND (AP)—Six persons were hospitalized here Wednesday night when a 300-pound iron and wod apartment house marquee crashed 10 feet to the sidewalk. None of the injuries were critical.

TRACK PRESIDENT DIES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert J. Dienst, 69, president and general manager of Beulah Park horse racing track at neighboring Grove City, died Wednesday night at his home. His associates at the pkark said Dienst had visited the track earlier in the day, apparently in good health. The cause of death was not disclosed.

Dienst, who bought his first horse in 1933, took over the Beulah Park track with several other men when mutuel betting became legal in Ohio in the 1930's. He became principal stockholder in 1937.

British, French, West German Politics Complicate Ike's Reassurance Mission

By LEON DENNEN
NEA Special Correspondent

PARIS — To allay European fears, President Eisenhower is expected to insist during his forthcoming visits to Germany, Britain and France that his visits with Nikita Khrushchev are "merely exploratory" and will concern only U.S.-Soviet relations.

The State Department has even leaked information that after Khrushchev's visit to the U.S. and before President Eisenhower goes to Moscow to return it, there will be a Summit Meeting of the Western Big Four, President Eisenhower, West German Chancellor Adenauer, French President de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Macmillan.

Based on a recent tour of Europe in which I talked with spokesmen and ordinary citizens, here is the political climate which President Eisenhower will find when he gets to Europe:

BRITAIN

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who faces a national election in October, has officially welcomed the Eisenhower - Khrishchev talks. He even takes some credit for having brought about the meeting.

The London Observer which supports the Prime Minister said editorially: "Mr. Macmillan, in spite of whatever disappointment he m fell that his own efforts to mediate did not produce direct results has welcomed the American initiative. He may even feel it is the direct result of his own independent move during his Moscow visit last winter."

FRANCE

For President Charles de Gaulle, who has visions of grandeur for

IN FRANCE: De Gaulle's pride.

France, the Eisenhower trip comes at an inopportune moment.

There are indications de Gaulle is in delicate negotiations with the rebels in Algeria. France is also getting ready to test her first atomic bomb in the Sahara desert.

De Gaulle has a proper pride in what he has done for France. He has given the country a stable government, the first since the war. France has become a powerful factor in European economy and diplomacy.

Only Algeria remains a sore spot. A solution of the Algerian problem and the possession of an A-bomb would thus give de Gaulle a stronger voice in his negotiations with the U.S. and Russia. Thus the timing of France's Sahara blast is important.

WEST GERMANY

For Chancellor Konrad Andenauer, strongest supporter of NATO in Europe, the announcement of the Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting came as a shock.

Adenauer saw eye-to-eye with the late John Foster Dulles. Now he is no longer sure of U.S. policy toward Germany. His doubts have not been allayed by the information that negotiations for the Eisenhower - Khrushchev meetin g went on secretly between the U.S. and Russia for several weeks — while the NATO allies were kept in ignorance.

The West Germans fear:

1. That Eisenhower might be maneuvered by Khrushchev i n t o some form of recognition of the Communist East German regime that will make the division of Germany permanent, as Khrushchev wants it.

2. That the U.S., without consulting West Germany, might abdicate on the disputed Ode-Neisse line territories now in possession of Poland.

It has long been a basic tenet of Adenauer's belief that the West must continue to hold the line in Europe while waiting for the inevitable clash between Russia and Red China.

Eisenhower's decision to visit Bonn has dispelled some uneasiness among West Germans. It has bolstered Adenauer's declining prestige and somewhat trimmed the sails of his Social Democratic opposition.

However, it has not removed the basic fears outlined above.

Eisenhower has an immence popularity, especially in West Germany. But Khrushchev has made it clear time and again that as fr s he is concerned Adenauer is enemy No. 1 of "European peace."

IN GERMANY: Adenauer's waning prestige.

And it will be Khrushchev, the Germans see, who will be talking with Eisenhower in secrecy.

IN FRANCE: De Gaulle's pride.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Most of this past weekend the finest of Scotland Yard, some mighty bright agents of J. Edgar Hoover's FBI and several U.S. Secret Service men were busy preparing for the security of another visitor —by the name of Dwight D. Eisenh o w e r. They ignored my talents. So I left them to their own devices and set out to discover why there are no crooks inside British labor, though some of our unions are part of underworld.

Victor Riesel

Soon I was in the presence of Sir Cecil Crabbe, a genial guardian knight in modern black coat and striped trousers. Her Majesty, the Queen, appointed Sir Cecil to an odd-sounding post — registrar of Friendly Societies.

Strange as it sounds, if we had one in the United States we would have no crooks. We would not be the butt of mocking jibes across the world.

THE FOREIGN RADIO would not be talking of "America'n labor racketeering." No one could steal union funds. Not a single union member could be deprived of any of his rights. Nor would a penny of his dues or assessments go to support political candidates or parties he disliked.

Of all this, what intrigues me most is Sir Cecil's power to protect the funds of a union from political abuse. Especially in view of the uproar inside Congress today over a new labor law. The British are so calm about it all — and so effective.

Sir Cecil is modest about his powers. He called in his aides and we went through documents which show first that the Register of Friendly Societies is a list of associations running from building and loan outfits and ladies' marching groups (black sashes on display) to trade unions.

Labor organizations have to register if they want to avoid paying income tax on their "provident LONDON funds" — pension and welfare pools and investments.

Sir Cecil, who had never interviewed before, asked me why I was so interested. I told him of crooks and muscle men and suppression of rights. "Incredible, he said, "'incredible. Look here at our political section." I looked.

THE REGISTRAR has the power to enforce a law which says no union can spend any money out of its general funds on politics—for political meetings, literature, use of cars or expenses or support and maintenance (meaning a salary) of political candidates.

If a union wants to go into politics, it first has to write such a project into its constitution. This has to be passed by the membership. Then the program must be registered.

The union has to create a special political fund, which must be run along "Model Rules For Political Funds." These are inspected and guarded by Sir Cecil and his staff.

Sir Cecil explained that any union member can "contract out" of the political fund if he wants. The funds are created by union officials taking a small percentage of each member's dues and assessments.

If the member decides to "'contract out," he merely fills out a form and sends it along to the proper officials. From that moment, the member's dues cannot be used for political purposes.

This means that no member can be forced to pay full dues if his money is being used for the distribution of any political literature or documents or in support of any candidate or, even more important, any prospective candidate.

The fact that every member of the union has the right to refuse to join in the union's political activity must be passed on to him by the union officials.

FURTHERMORE, the law says (and the registrar makes certain) that "'a member who is exempt from the obligation to contribute to the political fund of the union shall not be excluded from any benefits of the union or placed in any respect either directly or indirectly under any disability or disadvantage as compared with other members of the union except in relation to control or management of the political fund of the union. . ."

If anybody picks on those members who don't want to kick in, the aggrieved members can go to the registrar. He makes a decision. That's it. The registrar can prosecute.

There have been cases where members have complained because a penny was taken out of their dues each period by a Communist controlled union without authorization. The registrar ruled this unlawful. It wasn't the penny. It was the principle.

Maybe the British could lend us Sir Cecil in exchange for all that tea we dumped some time back.

Columbiana Sets Fund Goal Same as Year Ago

COLUMBIANA — Community Fund Council leaders, meeting this week, set up a 1959 campaign identical to the effort of last year, adopting the same quota — $7,100 — and the same solicitation methods.

The drive will begin Monday, Oct. 5. That date coincides with opening of the national campaign, and will feature the house-to-house canvass phase of the local campaign.

Details of the program established in 1958 called for a concerted drive by five civic organizations, assisted by a sixth group, under a general chairman provided by one civic group. This year the chairman is Edward Gustafson of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Other participating groups are Rotary, Kiwanis, Ruritan, and Business and Professional Womens Clubs. The local chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority also helped last year.

This year's budget of $7,100 is to be divided in the following manner: Boy Scouts, $2,400; Salem City Hospital, $1,750; Girl Scouts, $1,300; Salem Central Clinic, $750; Salvation Army, $500 and local relief, $400.

The 1958 campaign reached 97 per cent of its goal.

Next meeting of the Community Fund Council is set for Sept. 14 at the high school when supplies for the new campaign will be distributed.

REV. W. S. LONGSWORTH, pastor of the First Methodist Church, said a congregational meeting scheduled for last Sunday to complete plans for a building program has been postponed until Sunday, Aug. 30. He said some information needed to complete the plans was not available.

The 34th annual VanSkiver reunion was held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cy McLaughlin on Beverly Drive. Forty were present for the smorgasbord dinner at noon. Harvey VanSkiver of Salem is president of the family group. Glenn VanSkiver of Waynesburg, Pa., is vice president, and Mrs. McLaughlin is secretary - treasurer.

COLUMBIANA AUXILIARY was host Tuesday night for a meeting of the Columbiana County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary. Thirty were in attendance. The council sent a gift to an East Liverpool veteran who has been hospitalized at the Pittsburgh VA hospital. Next meeting of the county-wide group will be Sept. 15 in Wellsville.

The annual Lehman family reunion will be held Sunday, Sept. 6, at Pavilion 4 in Firestone Park. The hours are from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. A coverdish dinner is planned. Arden Lehman of Greenford is president of the family organization.

Marks, Lincoln Machine Win Class A Playoff Games

Same Opponents Meet Tonight

Stepanic's Edges Farmers Bank 9-8

Mark's Landing and Lincoln Machine moved one game up on their opponents Wednesday night by winning opening games in the best-of-three series in the Class A softball playoffs at Kelley Park.

First place Mark's edged third place Midway 6-5, and second place Lincoln clobbered fourth place Fireside 12-4. The same opponents will resume action tonight. If Mark and Lincoln win again tonight, they will meet tomorrow in the first game of another best of three series for the Class A playoff championship.

One regular season game in the Class AA was also played at Kelley Park last night, in which Stepanic's Tavern edged Farmers Bank 9-8.

Marks spotted Midway four runs in the second inning then came on stronng in the late frames to finally overhaul them in the last inning.

Two walks, two hit batsmen and Drakulich's three-run double tied the score at 5-5 in the sixth. In the seventh, losing pitcher Jack Jackson hit Davis with a pitched ball which cost him the game. Davies eventually crossed the plate on a one-base blow by King.

Midway outhit Mark's nine to five, but the losers committed five errors. John Clendenning was the winning hurler.

JUDGE GUILER pitched a one-hitter and clubbed a home run in Lincoln's win over Fireside. The Lincoln club used the long ball to wreck Fireside.

Besides Guiler's circuit clout, Bill Crookston and Charlie Marks both had round trippers, and Bill Odorizzi had a three-run double in a big sixth inning. Marks' home run with two on also came in that inning when Lincoln registered six times to break the game wide open.

Odorizzi and Shaffer each had two of Lincoln's eight hits. Cranstan got Fireside's only bingle off Guiler. Ron Wyss was the losing pitcher.

Fireside had taken a 2-1 lead in the first inning without the aid of a hit. Wyss and Hayes Covert both walked and the runs came across on a pair of sacrifice flys. Crookston's lead-off solo blast had put Lincoln off to a quick lead in the top of the inning.

The Stepanic's-Farmers contest was not a playoff affair but it went a long way in determining the final standings in Class AA.

It also made a tie for either second place. If Herron wins, Stepanic's wins its final game of the season tonight with Herron Transfer, it will tie Beloit for second place. If Herrn wins, Stepanics will fall into a third place tie with Shaffer Ford. Herron is in seventh place, out of the playoff picture.

IF STEPANIC'S AND Beloit tie they would have to meet to decide which team gets the second place trophy. Since there is no trophy for third place, if Shaffer's and Stepanic's tie, they will probably flip a coin to determine the third and fourth place clubs for the Shaughnessy playoffs.

Braves Roll Over Giants 5-2; Redlegs Blast Dodgers 9-4

By The Associated Press

Lew Burdette's done his share. Now can Warren Spahn return Milwaukee's two aces to normalcy?

It was Burdette and Spahn, winning back-to-back, who put the Braves in command through the first half of the season. But they haven't been able to win in tandem in more than two weeks and Milwaukee has skidded from first to third in the National League race.

Burdette, the lean right-hander, got half of the comeback job done Wednesday night, winning his 17th, tops in the majors, with a six-hitter that beat San Francisco 5-2 and pushed the Braves within three games of the first place Giants.

Now Spahn, working with a day's rest after a losing three-inning relief job as Milwaukee dropped two of three to Los Angeles, is to come back as a starter in the finish of the two-game series tonight.

Burdette's victory also closed the Braves within a game of third place Los Angeles. The Dodgers were held two games back of the Giants when Cincinnati exploded a seven-run eighth inning for a 9-4 victory.

Pittsburgh defeated St. Louis 4-2 after the Cards had won the completion of a July 12 suspended game 8-6 in 10 innings. Philadelphia defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-1 in the opener of a twi-night pair, then played a 7-7 tie stopped after 12 innings by curfew.

In the American League, Chicago's lead was pared to 3½ games again when Baltimore beat the White Sox 3-1 and second place Cleveland defeated Washington 5-4. New York beat Detroit 10-5 and Kansas City rapped Boston 6-3.

A fifth-inning home run by Del Crandall, his 15th, cracked a 1-1 tie for the Braves and Burdette's single then brought home the clincher in a two-run seventh. Jack Sanford (12-10) was the loser.

The Dodgers blew a 3-0 lead built with Chuck Essegian's first homer in the second. The Reds scored two in the fourth, then beat Sandy Koufax (6-4) when a two-run pinch single by Jerry Lynch put them ahead in the eighth. Jim Brosnan (7-5), was the winner.

Four singles gave the Cards two runs in the 10th inning of the suspended game against Bob Porterfield (0-2). Lindy McDaniel (13-11) won it. The Pirates won the regularly scheduled game on Smoky Burgess' RBI single in a two-run sixth after the Cards had taken a 2-0 lead against Vern Law (14-7). Rookie Bob Gibson (1-2) lost it.

Moore Stops Bassey In 11th

Winner May Meet Lightweight Champ

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A title fight with Lightweight Champion Joe Brown may be in the works for World Featherweight Champion Davey Moroe, who Wednesday night stopped Hogan (Kid) Bassey in 11 rounds.

Moore's manager, Willie Ketchum, said the Brown fight was fine with him "providing the money is right."

Moore, who bombed out Bassey, said he isn't trying to invade other divisions. But he added:

"Frankly, I'd like to meet (World Bantamweight Champion Jose) Becerra for my feather weight championship. But, I'm in this business for the money and I'll fight anybody if the price is right."

Matchmaker George Parnassus, who masterminded the Moore-Bassey title fight, said a Moore-Brown battle for the lightweight title would be a natural.

A Moore-Becerra featherweight title scrap would be a natural too, especially in Los Angeles, where the large Mexican population idolizes the little 118-pound champ from Mexico. But Becerra is committed for an October rematch with Alphonse Halimi of France, from whom he won the title last month.

Moore stopped Bassey so convincingly at the Olympic Auditorium that the little battler from British West Africa was asked to retire by his manager, George Biddles.

Bassey, who appeared at a press party with dark glasses hiding a swollen right eye and a bandage over a badly bruised right hand, said:

"This is not a decision I can make in a moment. I must think it over."

Bassey sprawled on his stool and refused to come out for the 11th round.

Sports Glances

Greenford football coach Harry Frankland is feeling pretty low about losing Ron Janovec to Salem, and it's hard to blame the man for harboring some resentment about the switch.

Frankland was instrumental in bringing varsity football to Greenford three years ago, and he finally had developed a team which looked like it might have a chance to rival Canfield for the Inter-County League title. The coach is really high on Janovec's talents and knows that without him the team's title chances are slim.

Frankland feels that somebody in Salem did a recruiting job on the boy but admits that he has no proof — at least as yet. He hinted that the incident still isn't closed as far as he is concerned.

WITH MOST OF the pre-season football conversation here focused on three newcomers, it's sometimes overlooked that the Quakers already have some capable, experienced boys at their positions. If anyone moves Ned Chappell or Joe Julian out of a tackle spot you'll know this team is going to be rough.

On the other side of the ledger, Salem lost some pretty fair talent through graduation, including its top two rushers and scorers.

DAVE BRISKEN reports that attendance at the county softball tournament held this month at Kelley Park was the best it has been in the five years he has been associated with the affair. The county tourney, together with the two day district playoffs here, netted the Salem Amateur Softball Association more than $100.

Brisken and official scorekeeper Bill Pauline Jr., put in some long hours at Kelley Park during the tourney and deserve much of the credit for its smooth operation and success.

Brisken's pet project, the Salem Invitational tournament, is slated to open Aug. 26 if the city playoffs can be completed by that time.

Minnis Upsets Polte In Tennis Tourney

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) — An upset marred the top seeded players' try for a straight sweep in the American Tennis Assn. national tournament here Wednesday.

Second seeded Gunter Polte of Springfield, Ohio, was edged by unranked Howard Minnis of Baton Rouge, La., 6-2, 3-6, 6-4.

Other seeded players survived the fourth round.

In the women's doubles, first-seeded Mary Etta Fine of Kansas City, Kan., won in the second and third rounds. She defeated Lucy McEvans of Detroit and Anne Gibbs, Tuskegee, Ala., both by scores of 6-1, 6-0.

McLish Ends Cleveland's Four-Game Losing Streak 5-4

Held, Baxes Hit Home Runs

Senators Call Five Hurlers to Mound

CLEVELAND (AP)—The "stopper" on the Cleveland pitching staff—Cal McLish—did his job Wednesday night and ended the Indians' four-game losing string with a 5-4 decision over the Washington Senators. He got good relief support from Larry Locke to post his 15th victory against six setbacks.

Woodie Held and Jim Baxes hit home runs for the Indians, who moved to within 3½ games of the front-running Chicago White Sox, who lost to Baltimore.

McLish was coasting to his first complete game since July 25 with a five-hitter and a 5-1 lead when he tired and was socked for three runs on homers by Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew, his 37th, before retiring a man in the eighth inning.

Locke came in at that point and retired the side, after allowing an infield single. The rookie righthander put the Senators down in order in the ninth. He struck out three of the seven batters he faced.

"I got by pkretty good, but I didn't have that real snap," said McLish later. "I was sorta fishing around out there. What I need is that second wind."

Manager Joe GGordon was pleased with the Indians' victory. "When you think these guys are down that's the time they come right back and win one. We looked pretty bad the night before (losing 11-4 to Washington) but we've bounced back like this before."

McLish was shaky at the start, givinng up a single to Lenny Green who stole second and rode home on Bobk Allison's bouncer through the middle.

Cleveland quickly tied it up in its half of the first inning. Minnie Minoso walked and came around when Tito Francona lined a double off the topk of the fence in left centerfield.

Held's home run in the second made it 2-1 and Baxes' homer following a single by Rocky Colavito in the third frame padded the margin to 4-1. All those runs were charged to loser Bill Fischer (9-10), first of five Washington pitchers.

The decisive Cleveland run was tallied in the fourth inning. Vic Power drove a one-out triple to left field. Camilo Pascual, who hasn't pitched in a month, got the next batter, but then walked three in a row to force in a run.

Akron Is Winner In Baseball Tourney

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Paced by Mike Howard, Akron, Ohio, shutout defending champs Bossier City, La. 3-0 here Wednesday in the seventh annual VFW Teener Baseball Tournament.

The Akron team bounced back to win after a 10-5 defeat earlier in the day to Elgin, Ill. Nine teams are competing for the national title in the double elimination tourney.

Howard struck out eight and gave up three walks.

Yankees Smash Tigers 10-5; Athletics Beat Red Sox 6-3

By The Associated Press

A right reluctant bunch of pennant contenders, these Cleveland Indians. They lose four in a row, blowing leads in three of them, and almost make it five—getting the cushion they needed on a bases-loaded walk.

Cleveland junked the slump with a 5-4 decision over last place Washington Wednesday night, moving within 3½ games of Chicago in the American League race after the White Sox had been spilled 3-1 by Baltimore in an afternoon game.

The Injuns did some blowing in this one, too, after building a 4-1 lead on homers by Woody Held and Jim Baxes and making it 5-1 when reliever Camilo Pascual gave upk a fourth-inning triple to Vic Power then walked three in a row.

New York came from five runs back and beat Detroit 10-5. Kansas City beat Boston 6-3.

In the National League, third pklace Milwaukee moved within three games of first place San Francisco as Lew Burdette beat the Giants 5-2 with a six-hitter and became the major's top winner with 17. Second place Los Angeles stayed two games behind, losing 9-4 when Cincinnati scored seven runs in the eighth inning.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia played a 7-7, 12-inning curfewed tie after the Phils took the opener of the twi-night pair 4-1. St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 8-6 in 10 innings in the completion of a July 12 suspended game, but the Bucs won the regularly scheduled game 4-2.

Rookie Larry Locke saved it for the Indians and Cal McLish (15-6), coming on with none out in the eighth after the Nats had scored three runs on Bob Allison's 28th homer and Harmon Killebrew's 37th.

Held's 22nd home run broke a 1-1 tie for the Indians in the second inning against loser Bill Fischer (8-9).

Baltimore beat the White Sox and Bobk Shaw (12-4) on Bob Boyd's two-run single with two out in the first. Billy O'Dell (7-10) was the winner.

Frank Lary (15-8), who had won seven in a row from the Yankees since July of last year, was chased in a four-run fifth. Marv Throneberry and Hector Lopez hammered two-run homers for the Yankees while Whitey Ford (13-6) won his fifth in a row with 5 2-3 innings of shutout relief. The Tigers scored their five against Eli Grba and Bob Turley.

Bud Daley, (15-7) beat the Red Sox with a four-hitter giving up Dick Gernert's 10th home run and Jackie Jensen's 25th. Frank Sullivan (7-8) was the loser.

Softball Tourney Will Begin Here On Wednesday

Salem's third annual Invitational Softball tournament is slated to get underway Wednesday at Kelley Park, with tourney director Dave Brisken expecting a 32-team field.

In the two previous years, the tournament has attracted many of the area's top teams. Several clubs have already indicated that they will participate this year.

Locally, Shaffer Ford, bolstered by pitcher Bob Shoff, and Herronn Transfer, with a remodeled roster including Leo Kline, are definite entries. Other local teams are expected to announce their entries later.

Severl strong teams from Youngstown are expected to accept invitations to the tourney. Locl CIO-AFL 1331 and Shangri-La Bar & Grill have already paid their $20 entry fee. Rocky Sicliano pilots Shangri-La while Leo DuBos manages Local 1331.

There is also a good possibility that the Youngstown district champion, Skyway Tavern, and tough Hanni-Joyce will be playing here, too.

The Niles Alberine Restaurant crew of Don Levy, a real hard-luck club in last year's tourney, is back again, along with Dom Pompelia's Laurel Lanes of Warren.

Akron will send the Esquires an all-Negro team, and Red's Bar from Akron is a possibility.

The Findlay Ohio Oilers will make the long trek Labor Day weekend for a set of games. Midland's Local 1212, with the incomparable Fats Katich, George Boston and company, will be on hand.

Three games will be played each night, at 7, 8 and 9. Games on Sunday and Labor Day will go at 1:30, 2:30, 3:30 and 4:30 and at 7, 8 and 9. There will be no games on Friday nights of football games.

The tournament is sanctioned by the Amateur Softball Association. Anyone wishing to enter the tourney may phone Brisken at ED 7-6875 in Salem.

Athletics Purchase Jablonski, Morgan

KANSAS CITY (AP) —The Kansas City Athletics Wednesday night bought third baseman Ray Jablonski from the St. Louis Cardinals and infielder outfielder Joe Morgan from Louisville of the American Assn.

To make room for the pair, the A's sold infielder Ray Boone to Milwaukee and infielder Preston Ward to Louisville, a Milwaukee farm club. Sale prices were not disclosed.

Jaycees Defeat Kresge's In Finale

Clayton Holt belted two home runs and a triple for the Jaycees but his club was snowed under 15 10 by Kresge's Wednesday night at Memorial Park in the final regular season game of the Hot Stove League.

The league will wind up the year's activities Sunday when the four division champions take on AllStar teams at Kelly and Centennial Parks.

Pitcher Bob Brisken slammed a home run and a single in two official trips to the plate to pace Kresge's to its upset win over the Jaycees .Larry Kibler added three singles to Holt's perfect night at the plate for the losers.

The loss left the Jaycees in third place, three games behind the champion, Stark's Colonial Attic. Kresge's finished the season in fifth place, eight games out.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By RUFUS LIDE

Working around Lake Guilford last Sunday I took time out to visit the camping area located near the park pavilion.

Partly for curiosity and partly for information I talked with several local and out-of-state campers.

I don't believe I have ever met a more sociable or congenial group of people than the campers. Some had umbrella tents; some trailer tents that fold away in a compact compartment for easy transportation; others had trailers, including some 10-foot trailers with all the conveniences of home for summer time living.

THE CAMPING OUTFITS that interested me most were the small, aluminum trailers. Designed for restful sleep, they contain ice boxes, closet space and gas tanks that supply gas for cooking, heating and light.

These compact "homes" provide the maximum comfort for four people.

The way some hotels and motels "grind you up" when you are vacationing with your family certainly encourages more and more people to take along their "bed and board" for economical reasons. Some motels and hotels make no allowances for families when it comes to room registrations and charges per person.

YOU MAY NOT BEAT the game when you buy a trailer, but at the same time you have your bed and board with you for a number of years and a lot more privacy than you will get at some of the more swanky "sleeping resorts."

I asked a woman at one of the motels I stopped in while on vacation why the rates were so high? Her answer was simple: "Because people pay the price."

Then she went on to say if she could fill -up her motel each night at $3 a room she would make money. At the same time she was relieving me of $12.

THE CAMPERS AT Lake Guilford over the weekend were from a number of states. Some of the license plates were from Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, and Florida and one was from Ontario, Canada. Also in this camping fraternity were many local people, including Frank Wilson and Joe Smith of East Liverpool, doing some fun fishing for carp.

They had 12 carp that ranged from 2 to 7 pounds in weight. The only problem they had was to give the fish away. They must have had 30 pounds of fish. Wait a minute, did I say fish?

Midgets to Race At Canfield Track

A special 12-event program of stock car and TQ Midget racing is carded for Saturday night's program at the Canfield Speedway. This will be the last program of racing until after the Canfield Fair.

The TQ Midgets are making their first appearance in Canfield. In the large field entered, six are from the New Castle area and include Bill Siebanolier, Jack Houston, Wayne Clark, Jack Fix, Fred McHugh and the only young lady entered in the field, Thelma Kobakla, who drives a Crosley - powered TQ Midget.

The Late Model vision will find an extra large field ready for action. Jim Bickerstaff, Youngstown, currently the Canfield point leader will find the going rough. Roy Gemberling, Kent, the 1958 Canfield champion, Russ Allen in his 1958 Pontiac, lead-footed Bill Forney of Youngstown, Nook Walters of Niles and many newcomers in this division are finding the quick way around the Canfield oval.

Gates to the Canfield Speed way will open at 6:30 p.m. with the first event getting underway at 8:30.

Hitting — Jim Baxes, Indians, drove in three runs, two with his third homer in three games, for 5-4 victory over Senators that ended Cleveland's losing string at four.

Veteran Newsman Succumbs to Cancer

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Karl W. Kessler, 65, veteran Toledo and Columbus newspaperman and a native of Fremont, died of cancer Wednesday in Maumee Valley Hospital.

Kessler was a former reporter for the Toledo Blade and once wrote "Around the Town," a daily column for the Columbus Citizen.

After leaving Toledo, he went to Columbus where the entered the real estate business, also writing his column for the Citizen. Later he conducted a program called "Broad and High" for Columbus radio station WAIU.

Kessler helped develop Worthington real estate but was shattered financially by the 1929 economic crash.

For a brief period in 1939 he was a special news director of radio station WTOL in Toledo.

Surviving are his sons, Kaye, who is on the sports staff of the Columbus Citizen, and Jack and Carter, also of Columbus.

Funeral services will be held here Friday.

According to legend, the yard was established by King Henry I, of England, as the distance from the point of his nose to the end of his thumb when his arm was outstretched.

Jellied Consomme Is Cool Dish

With warm weather, it's time to think of lighter, more refreshing things to eat. Jellied consomme is one of them.

To jell a can of consomme, place it in refrigerator at least 4 hours. There are many delicious ways to serve it. For example, turn into individual dessert bowls. Top with a tablespoon of red caviar and cover with a dollop of commercial sour cream.

Jellied Consomme in Avocado Shells — (Makes 4 servings)

Two cans (10½ ounces each or 2½ cups) condensed consomme, ½ cup shredded cabbage, 2 tablespoons sliced radishes, 2 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 avocados.

Combine consomme with cabbage, radishes and lemon juice; chill until jellied— about 4 hours. Halve and peel avocado; brush with lemon juice; fill with consomme mixture. Serve with finger sandwiches, then ripe strawberries dipped in confectioners' sugar.

Consomme 'n Bitters (Makes 2 to 3 servings)

One can (10½-ounces) condensed consomme, dash bitters, chopped dill or scallions.

Combine consomme and bitters; chill until jellied—about 4 hours. Serve in chilled bowls. Sprinkle with chopped dill or scallions

Consomme with Ripe Olives (Makes 2 to 3 servings)

One can (10½-ounces) condensed consomme, 2 tablespoons coarsely chopped ripe olives.

Chill consomme in refrigerator until jellied—about 4 hours. Add olives, whipping them in with a fork. Serve in chilled bowls.

Rotisserie Roasts Barbecue

The good smell of meat roasting in the open air promises an outdoor feast. With an electric rotisserie set up on the patio, family barbecues become as easy as they are fun—with no fire to stoke, the spit turning itself, a thermostat controlling the degree of heat.

What's more, an entire meal can be cooked at the same time, potatoes browned by the drippings from the roast, sliced squash sauteed the same way.

Lamb Barbecue

Have a small leg of lamb (6 or 7 pounds) trimmed for the rotisserie spit by the butcher. Make a marinade by crushing together a pinch of oregano, several sprigs of parsley, a pinch of rosemary, a crushed garlic clove, paprika, and salt.

Use a mortar and pestle, if you have one, to mash these into a paste, or mash with the back of a wooden spoon. Slowly add ¼ cup olive oil, then an equal quantity of red wine. Brush mixture over meat, let stand at room temperature an hour or longer.

Insert lamb on spit, fastening securely with prongs for good balance. Follow manufacturer's directions for spit-roasting on rotisserie, allowing 30 minutes to pound or until meat thermometer registers 175 degrees F. Brush meat occasionally with marinating sauc

During last hour, place potatoes in drip pan, turn several times to brown thoroughly; place sliced uncooked zucchini squash in pan during last half hour.

Both squash and potatoes should be drained on paper towel before serving to remove excess fat. Meat can be carved while still on rotisserie spit.

Tarragon Dressing

Ingredients: 1 egg, 1 cup water, 1-3 cup nonfat dry milk, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ⅛ teaspoon white pepper, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 6 tablespoons tarragon vinegar.

Method: In top of double boiler beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add water and blend.

Mix together the nonfat dry milk (in dry form), flour, salt, mustard and pepper; sprinkle over surface of egg mixture; beat with rotary beater until smooth. Cook and stir over hot (not boiling water) until thickened.

Remove from heat; stir in butter, then gradually stir in vinegar. Store in covered jar in refrigerator. Stir, if necessary, before using.

Note: 13 calories per tablespoon in this dressing.

Note to New Cooks: the word "drippings" in a recipe refers to the fat and solid particles left in the pan after cooking meat or poultry.

Cake Baking Is Easy as Pie

If a kitchen godmother should grant you one wish, and you do not have a heat-control range, you might consider asking for this comforting piece of equipment.

Pay special attention to our advice if you have a worry-bird's temperament. Some cooks may be able to bake popovers and angel-food cakes in a range minus heat control without damaging their psyches.

But after two experiences with such outmoded equipment—one stint in a small city apartment, and one in a summer country house—we know that disposition can be detrimentally affected by an old-fashioned stove's whims!

There's a wonderful feeling of security in putting a souffle in a heat-control oven, turning on a timer and at its ring finding your creation high, puffy and perfectly baked.

Any range needs care. It's always startling to find women who wouldn't dream of neglecting their refrigerators calmly letting grime and grease accumulate on top burners and ovens.

Don't ask us the why of this phenomenon! Perhaps these cooks do not realize that keeping a range clean helps it cook and bake well.

Never, never, never use a heat-control oven to heat a kitchen; such use can ruin a thermostat.

In preheating an oven ,don't put the dial at a higher temperature than the one needed to bake by; this maneuver won't help matters at all. With the dial set at the required temperature, the thermosat's valve will automatically reduce the flow of gas in its own good due time.

Cake Baking

Every cooking contest we've ever attended has shown that women need o learn how to bake perfect cakes, presuming you have prepared the cake batter by carfeully following a reliable recipe, here are baking tips.

Prepare the pans appropriately. Use unsalted shortening for greasing their bottoms. You may, if you wish, also grease the sides of the pans. Research has shown that if just the bottoms are greased cakes are slightly higher than if the sides are also treated.

On the other hand, greasing the sides helps prevent raggedness—a blessing when applying frosting. Take your choice!

Then dust the pans with flour or line with waxed paper. Some cooks like also to grease the waxed paper. If parchment paper is on hand, you may leave the pans ungreased and line the bottoms with it.

Use cake pans with straight sides; they produce cakes with better volume and texture than those baked in pans with flaring sides.

The batter should be in fair proportion to the depth of the pan. If the pan is too big for the amount of batter, he cake will not rise or brown properly, and it will peak.

If pan is too small for the amount of batter, the texture will be coarse, the crust may be crisp, and the batter will probably overflow before it sets.

Beef Roll

Ingredients: 1 pound ground beef, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ½ teaspoon onion salt, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, tabasco, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ cup catchup, 1 ½ cups sifted flour, ½ cup enriched yellow cornmeal ,1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ cup shortening, ½ cup milk.

Method: Cook beef in butter in skillet until it loses its red color; remove from heat; mix in onion salt, Worcestershire, tabasco to taste, 1 teaspoon of the salt, pepper and catchup.

Sift together the flour, cornmal, baking powder and remaining ½ teaspoon salt.

Cut in shortening until it is in small particles. Mix in milk lightly. Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; knead gently 2 or times; roll out to form a 12 by 15-inch rectangle.

Spread filling evenly over dough; roll up like jelly roll; seal edges. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in hot (425 degrees) oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Parmesan Turkey

Ingredients: 2 packages (10 ounces each) broccoli spears, boiling water, salt, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 cup fat-free chicken broth, 1 cup light cream, ¾ cup grated Parmesan cheese, thin wide cooked turkey slices ,(about 12), paprika.

Method: Cook broccilo according to package directions using the amount of salt called for; drain; arrange in bottom of 4 individual shallow casseroles (each holding about 1¼ cups).

Melt butter in 1-quart saucepan over low heat; stir in flour, then broth and cream.

Cook and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly. Remove from reat; stir in with fork or whisk in ½ cup of the cheese.

Arrange turkey slices over the broccoli so vegetable is covered. Pour over the sauce; about ½ cup for each casserole.

Sprinkle with remaining cheese and dust with paprika. Broil moderately slowly until hot through and top is browned — about 10 minutes. Makes 4 generous servings.

Broiled Flanksteak

Ingredients: 1 top quality flank steak (about 2 pounds), 1 tablespoon butter (melted), garlic salt, freshly-ground pepper, salt.

Method: Place steak on broiler rack; brush with half the melted butter; sprinkle lightly with garlic salt and pepper. Place broiler pan close to high heat; broil 3 to 5 minutes.

Turn steak; brush with remaining butter and sprinkle with garlic salt and pepper; broil this side as before.

Sprinkle steak with salt and serve at once, cutting with knife held at an angle so as to achieve wide thin slices. Makes 6 servings.

Sliced Peaches Star in Flavorful Salad

Just "ginger-peachy" is this dinner meal. Ginger Peach Salad, a cool and refreshing combination of fresh peaches, chopped celery and pecans and gingerale.

Served with tea and sandwiches, it's a delightful luncheon dish which will do just as well for a dinner meal.

Ginger Peach Salad

1 package lime-flavored gelatin, 1 cup hot water, 1 cup ginger ale, ¼ cup chopped nuts, ¼ cup chopped celery, 1 cup drained diced sweetened fresh peaches.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add giner ale. Chill until slightly thickened.

Then fold in nuts, celery, and peaches. Pour into a 1-quart ring mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes six servings.

Mystery Bisque

Ingredients: a pound medium-sized shrimp, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon whole mixed spice especially prepared for seafood, 1 can (10¼ ounces) frozen condensed cream of potato soup, paprika, cucumber sticks.

Method: Wash shrimp in cold water. Place in a 1½ quart saucepan with the 2 cups water and spice; simmer 3 to 5 minutes; partly cover saucepan.

Allow to stand in covered saucepan off heat until cool enough to handle. Remove shrimp with slotted spoon and save for the main course.

Strain shrimp stock. Empty potato soup into a saucepan; fill can with shrimp stock (1½ cups) and add. Bring slowly to a boil; cool and blend smooth in electric blender.

Chill several hours or overnight. Serve in cups and sprinkle with paprika; serve with cucumber sticks. Makes 3 servings.

The seafood seasoning gives this bisque a spicy flavor that is a pleasant contrast in a chilled soup.

Stewed Tomatoes

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion (quartered and cut into thin strips), 2 medium-sized (1-¼ pounds) yellow crookneck squash (pared and thinly sliced), 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes, 1¼ teaspoons salt, ⅛ teaspoon white pepper, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 2 tablespoons cold water.

Method: Melt butter in 10-inch skillet over low heat; add onion, arrange squash over onion.

Cover and cook very slowly until onion is transparent, shaking pan often. Add tomatoes, salt and pepper; heat.

Stir cornstarch and water together until smooth. Add and stir constantly until sauce is clear and thickened. Makes 6 servings.

Tangerine Jelly

Ingredients: 1½ cups cold water, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 can (6 ounces) frozen concentrated tangerine juice.

Method: Remove tangerine juice from freezer and open so it will thaw a little; you can immerse the can in hot water. Pour ¾ cup of the cold water into a 1-quart saucepan; sprinkle gelatin over to soften.

Place over low heat and stir until gelatin dissolves; remove from heat. Stir in remaining ¾ cup cold water and the tangerine concentrate, just as it comes from the can.

Turn into 5 individual molds, each about ½-cup size. Chill. Unmold at serving time. Makes 5 servings. If indented molds are used a little fresh fruit may be placed in jelly indentations as a garnish.

Beans Frances

Ingredients: 1 pound snap beans, ¾ cup boiling water, ¾ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion (quartered and cut into thin strips 1 can (6 ounces) sliced mushrooms, pepper.

Method: Cut tips from beans; scrub in cold water; drain. Cut in half crosswise and lengthwise. Cook rapidly in 2-quart saucepan with boiling water and salt, covered, until just tender-crisp about 12 minutes.

Lift cover and turn over beans a few times while cooking; drain. Meanwhile brown onion in butter in 8-inch skillet; add drained mushrooms and heat; mix with drained beans.

Add freshly-ground pepper to taste. Reheat if necessary. Makes 6 servings.

Fruit Cup

Ingredients: 1 can (11 ounces) whole segments of Mandarin oranges in light syrup, 1 cup cultivated blueberries, 2 ripe peaches, 2 tablespoons (or more) orange-flavored liqueur (cognac type).

Method: Turn the oranges and their syrup into a serving bowl and add the blueberries.

Dip peaches into boiling water; pare, halve, pit and slice thin; add to other fruit with liqueur. Chill. Makes 6 servings.

Carrot Has Possibilities

Never underestimeate the glamour of a fresh carrot. Available 12 months a year, it is too often treated like a peasant and just boiled.

But this aristocrat in flavor and texture, storehouse of essential vitamin A, can be served in delightful and de luxe ways. So let's take a look at their golden possibilities.

Savory Carrots: Fresh, whole red-gold carrots cooked in chicken broth, seasoned with melted butter or margarine, dusted with ground black pepper and garnished with chives.

Or, for a color and flavor harmony, sauteed carrots and green peppers, or raw carrot sticks on an hors d'oeuvre tray. Carrot curls add fillip to a fresh vegetable salad, or glazed in honey or brown sugar are a delicious accompaniment for meat. Ever try a tall glass of frosted carrot juice for summer breadkfast?

Shredded Fresh Carrot and Banana Salad: Cut bananas in 1-inch chunks. Dip in mayonnaise thinned to heavy cream consistency, with milk. Add fresh lemon juice to taste. Roll banana chunks in shredded raw carrots. Serve on lettuce. Top each serving with 1 teaspoon peanut butter.

Cottage Cheese Salad on Shredded Fresh Carrots: Mix cottage cheese with finely chopped onion, fresh lemon juice, ground black pepper and salt to taste. Serve in mounds on shredded raw carrots.

Fresh Carrot and Cream Cheese Balls: Soften cream cheese and mix with salt, minced onion and minced garlic to taste. Chill until firm enough to handle. Shape into ¼-inch balls. Roll in finely shredded raw carrots. Serve on toothpicks as hors d'oeuvres.

Toasted Whole Fresh Carrots: Roll whole cooked carrots in fine dry bread crumbs. Place in skillet with hot melted butter or margarine. Add dash garlic powder. Brown on all sides.

Suicide Attempt Thwarted By Local Sports Dealer!

It was a day just like any other day when J.S., A local bowler dropped in for a blast of kegeling conversation. I was unpacking our new Brunswick line of shoes and bags when his eye caught the new "Squire" Black and white bowling shoe. Well his eyes bugged out like Jayne Mansfield plumber. After his hysteria subsided, he remembered he had just purchased a pair of "Brand X" shoes late last season. When the full realization of his colossal blunder finally struck him, he was a wild man bent on self destruction. It was then I called on all my physical strength and Judo knowledge and somehow managed to prevent a horrible disaster. Well we arranged to let him take a pair home and after several days it looks like he and the shoes are going to be deliriously happy.

Questions and Answers

Q—The ruler of what country is still regarded as a god by his people?

A—The Dalai Lama of Tibet, is the only ruler in the world whom his people regard as a god.

Q—What was the first real census of modern times?

A—The first really modern census was the United States census of 1790.

Questions and Answers

Q — I have no hydrochloric acid in my stomach juices. Can you discuss the possible causes and treatment?

A — The absence of hydrochloric acid in the stomach juices is a symptom and not a disease. It occurs in the presence of some diseases, particularly pernicious anemia and cancer of the stomach. But it may appear without any apparent reason.

When possible, the underlying cause must be treated. If a particular cause cannot be found it is possible to give small amounts of weak hydrochloric acid by mouth.

Q — Please say something about the condition known as orthostatic hypotension.

A — This refers to a lowering of the blood pressure which occurs in a standing position and which disappears when the patient lies down. It is sometimes associated with aging and sometimes with certain diseases of the body.

However, it also appears as the result of a simple failure of the sympathetic nervous system to cause the blood vessels in the lower part of the body to contract. Too much blood accumulates in the veins in the lower part of the body and deprives the brain of sufficient blood circulation. It may result in fainting or similar symptoms.

If severe enough to warrnt it, this type of postural low blood pressure can often be successfully treated by using elastic bandages on the legs or an abdominal binder. These help to prevent too much accumulation of blood in these portions of the body.

Q — Does oil which has entered the lungs work its way out? A relative fell into an oil storage tank and before he was removed inhaled a large amount of oil.

A — Sometimes the presence of oil in the lungs (usually reaching there by inhaling mineral oil) can cause a mild inflammation which is known by the name of lipoid pneumonia. Oil in the lungs is also sometimes walled off by fibrous tissue.

This may interfere with the capacity of the lungs to take in air. Your relative should have careful tests made of his lung capacity and X-ray films of his chest.

Q — Are cancer and tuberculosis always discoverable during a physical examination? I often have sore throats and hoarseness.

A — Physical examination alone is not always sufficient to reveal cancer or tuberculosis. Other tests are often necessary.

However, your susceptibility to attacks of sore throat and hoarseness does not lead to the suspicion of either cancer or tuberculosis.

A — The most likely explanation is the presence of fragile blood vessels. However, there are certain diseases of the blood and other disorders which can show themselves by the symptom of easy bruising. Such possibilities should be investigated.

You'll save money if you buy whole broiler-fryers rather than the arts. You can cut up the bird and, if you have a freezer, store pat of it, use the rest.

A teaspoon of dry mustard is a good addition to a ham glaze made with a cup of brown sugar and a couple of tablespoons of pineapple or other fruit juice.
